PCC Course 04-02
The Art
of Command

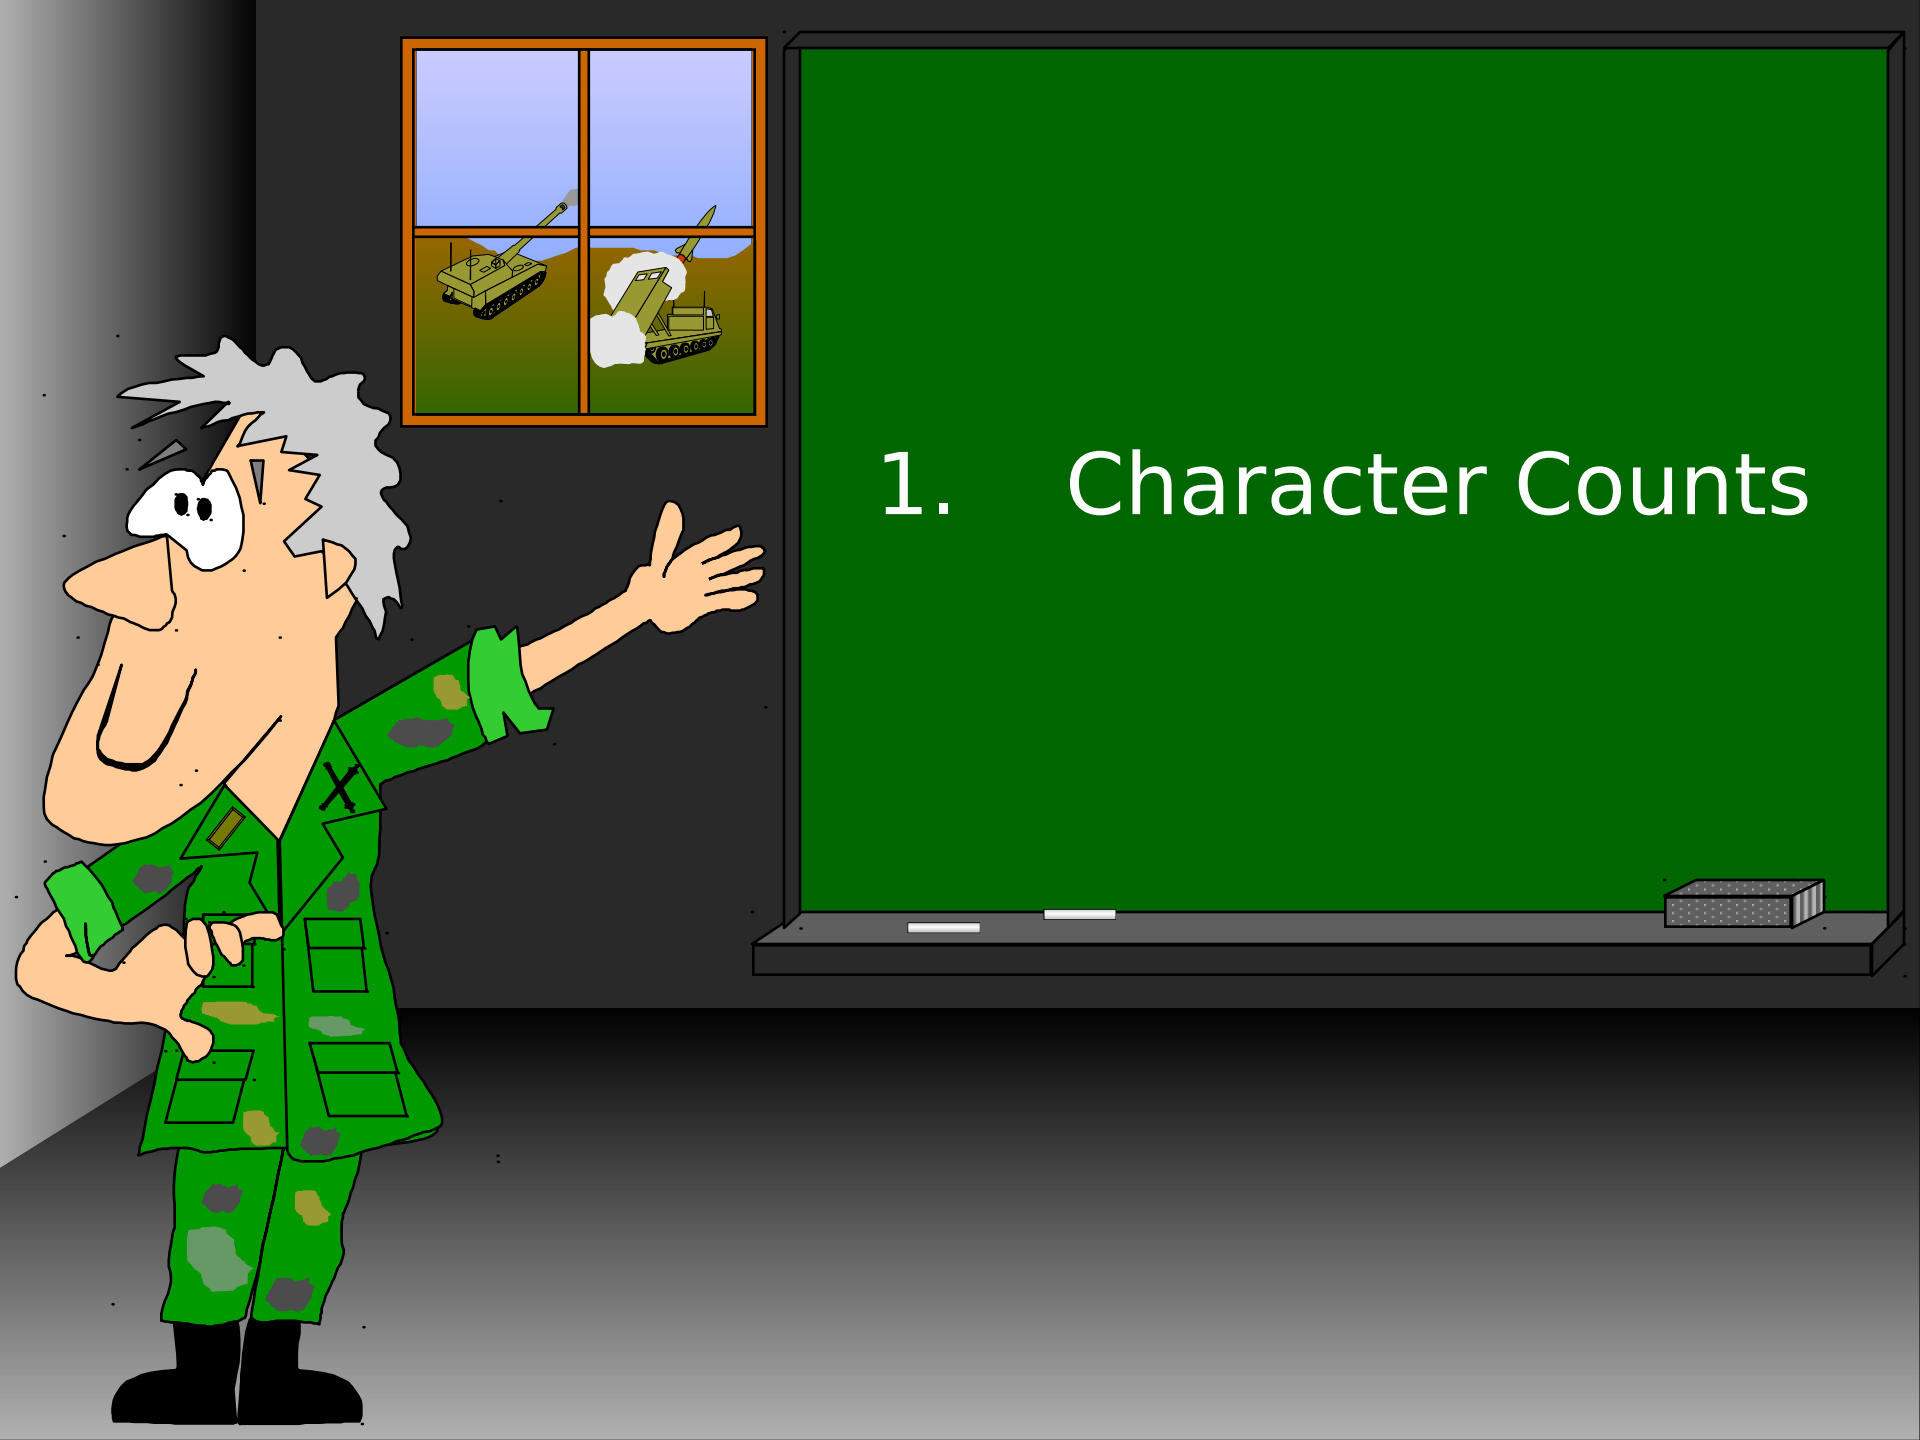
calories/day
2. Write it Down
12. Career management
3. Golden Rule works
13. NCOs = backbone
4. Training is every…
14. Avoid policies …
5. Stay fit physically,…
15. Use the right tool
6. A finger & thumb …
16. If it ain’t broke…
7. OERs
17. Compound interest..
8. Take prudent risks
18. Seek
9. Writing skills…
19. Murphy lives
10. Perspective…
20. Have fun



1. Character Counts

Values
Self-discipline
Compassion Responsibility
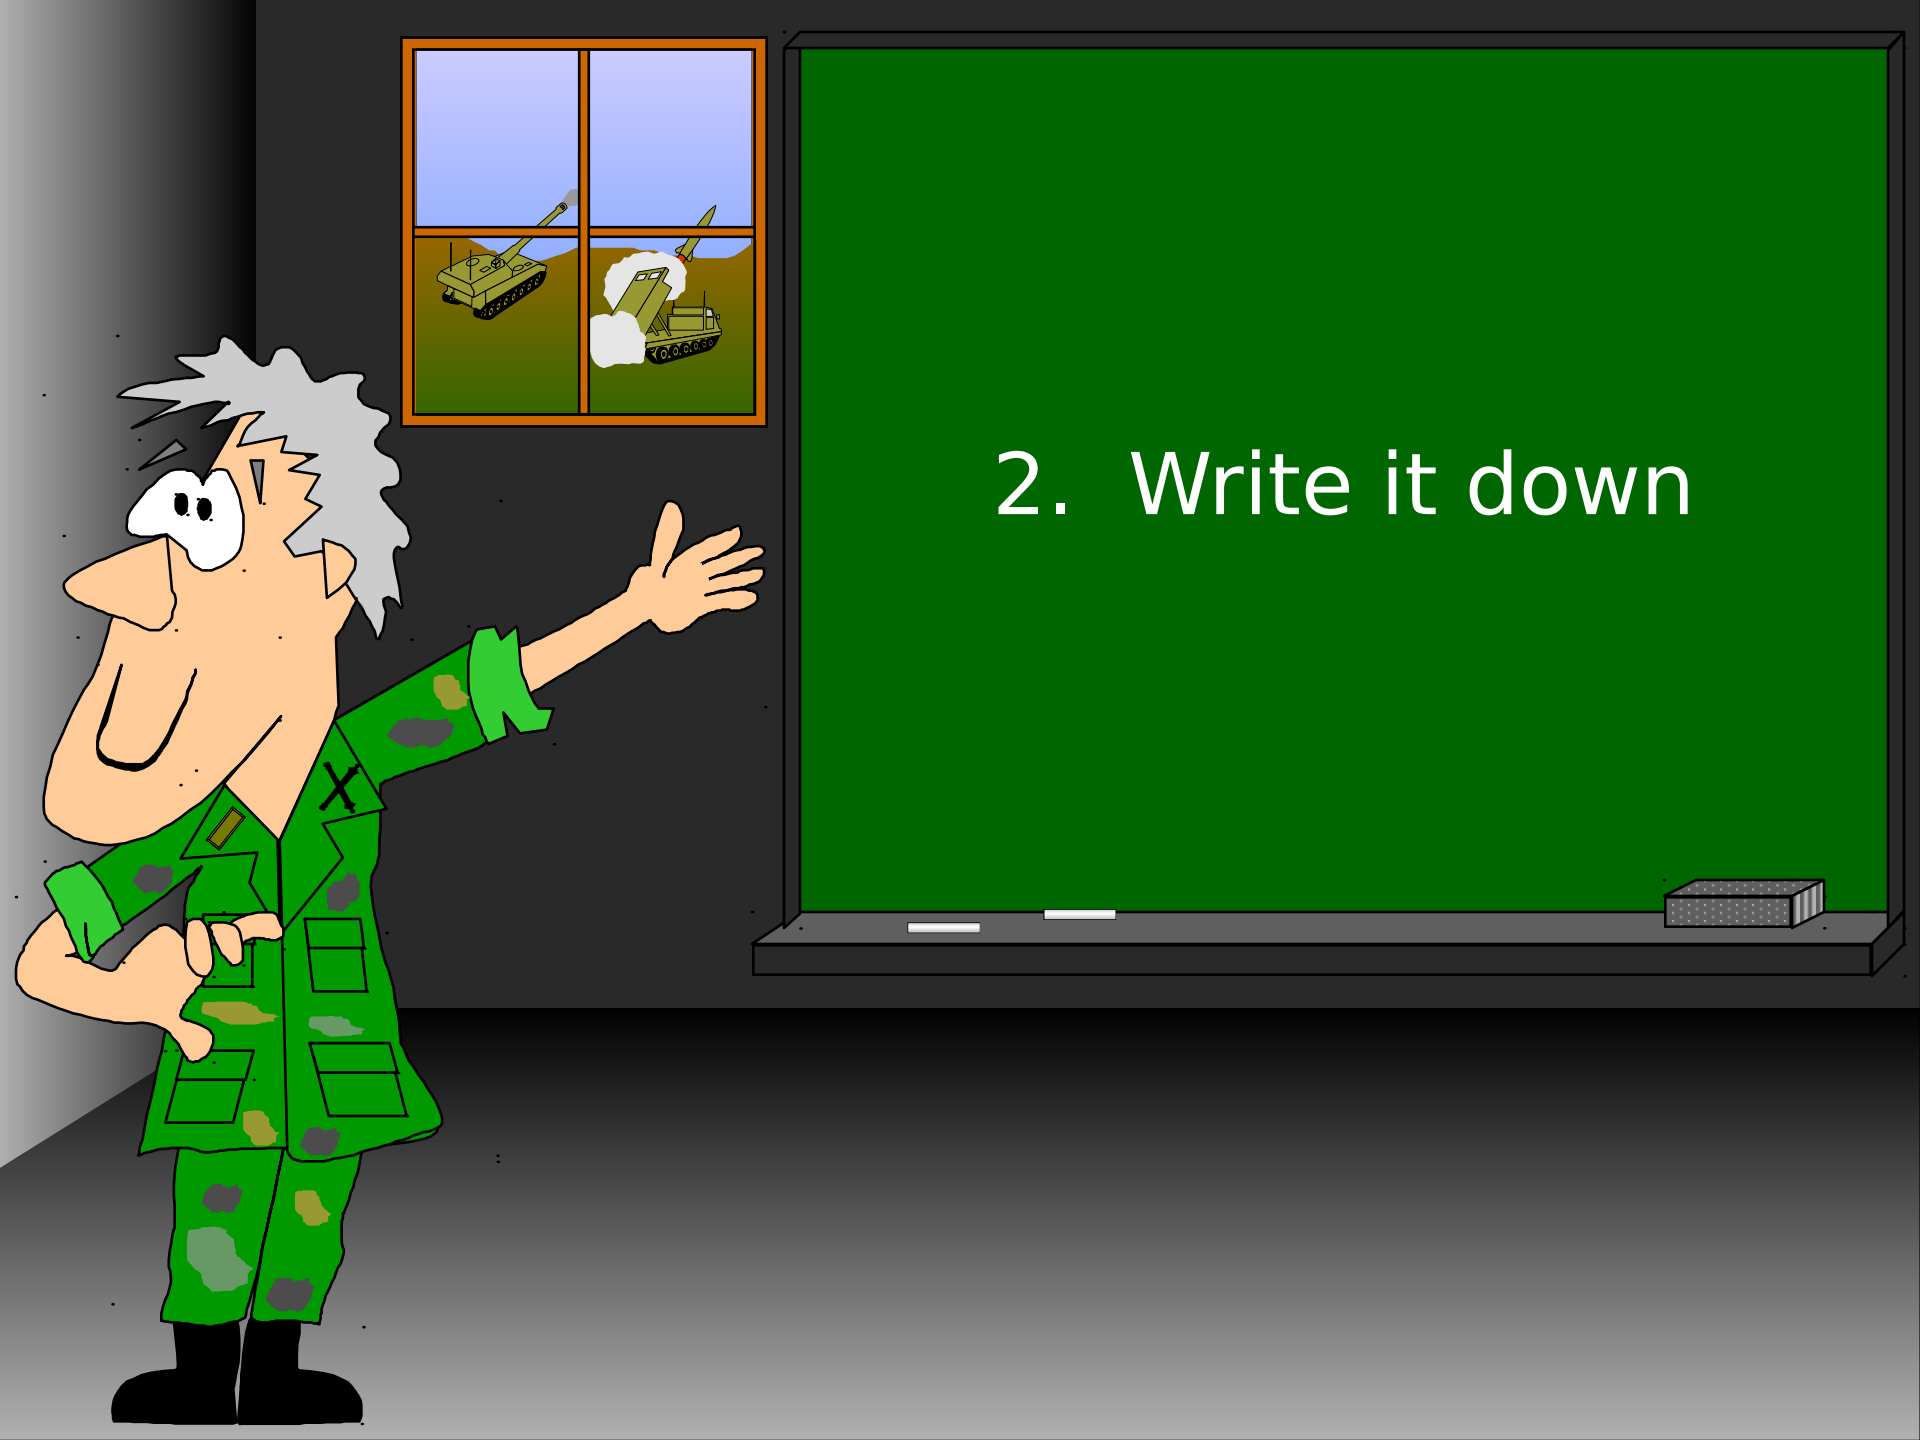
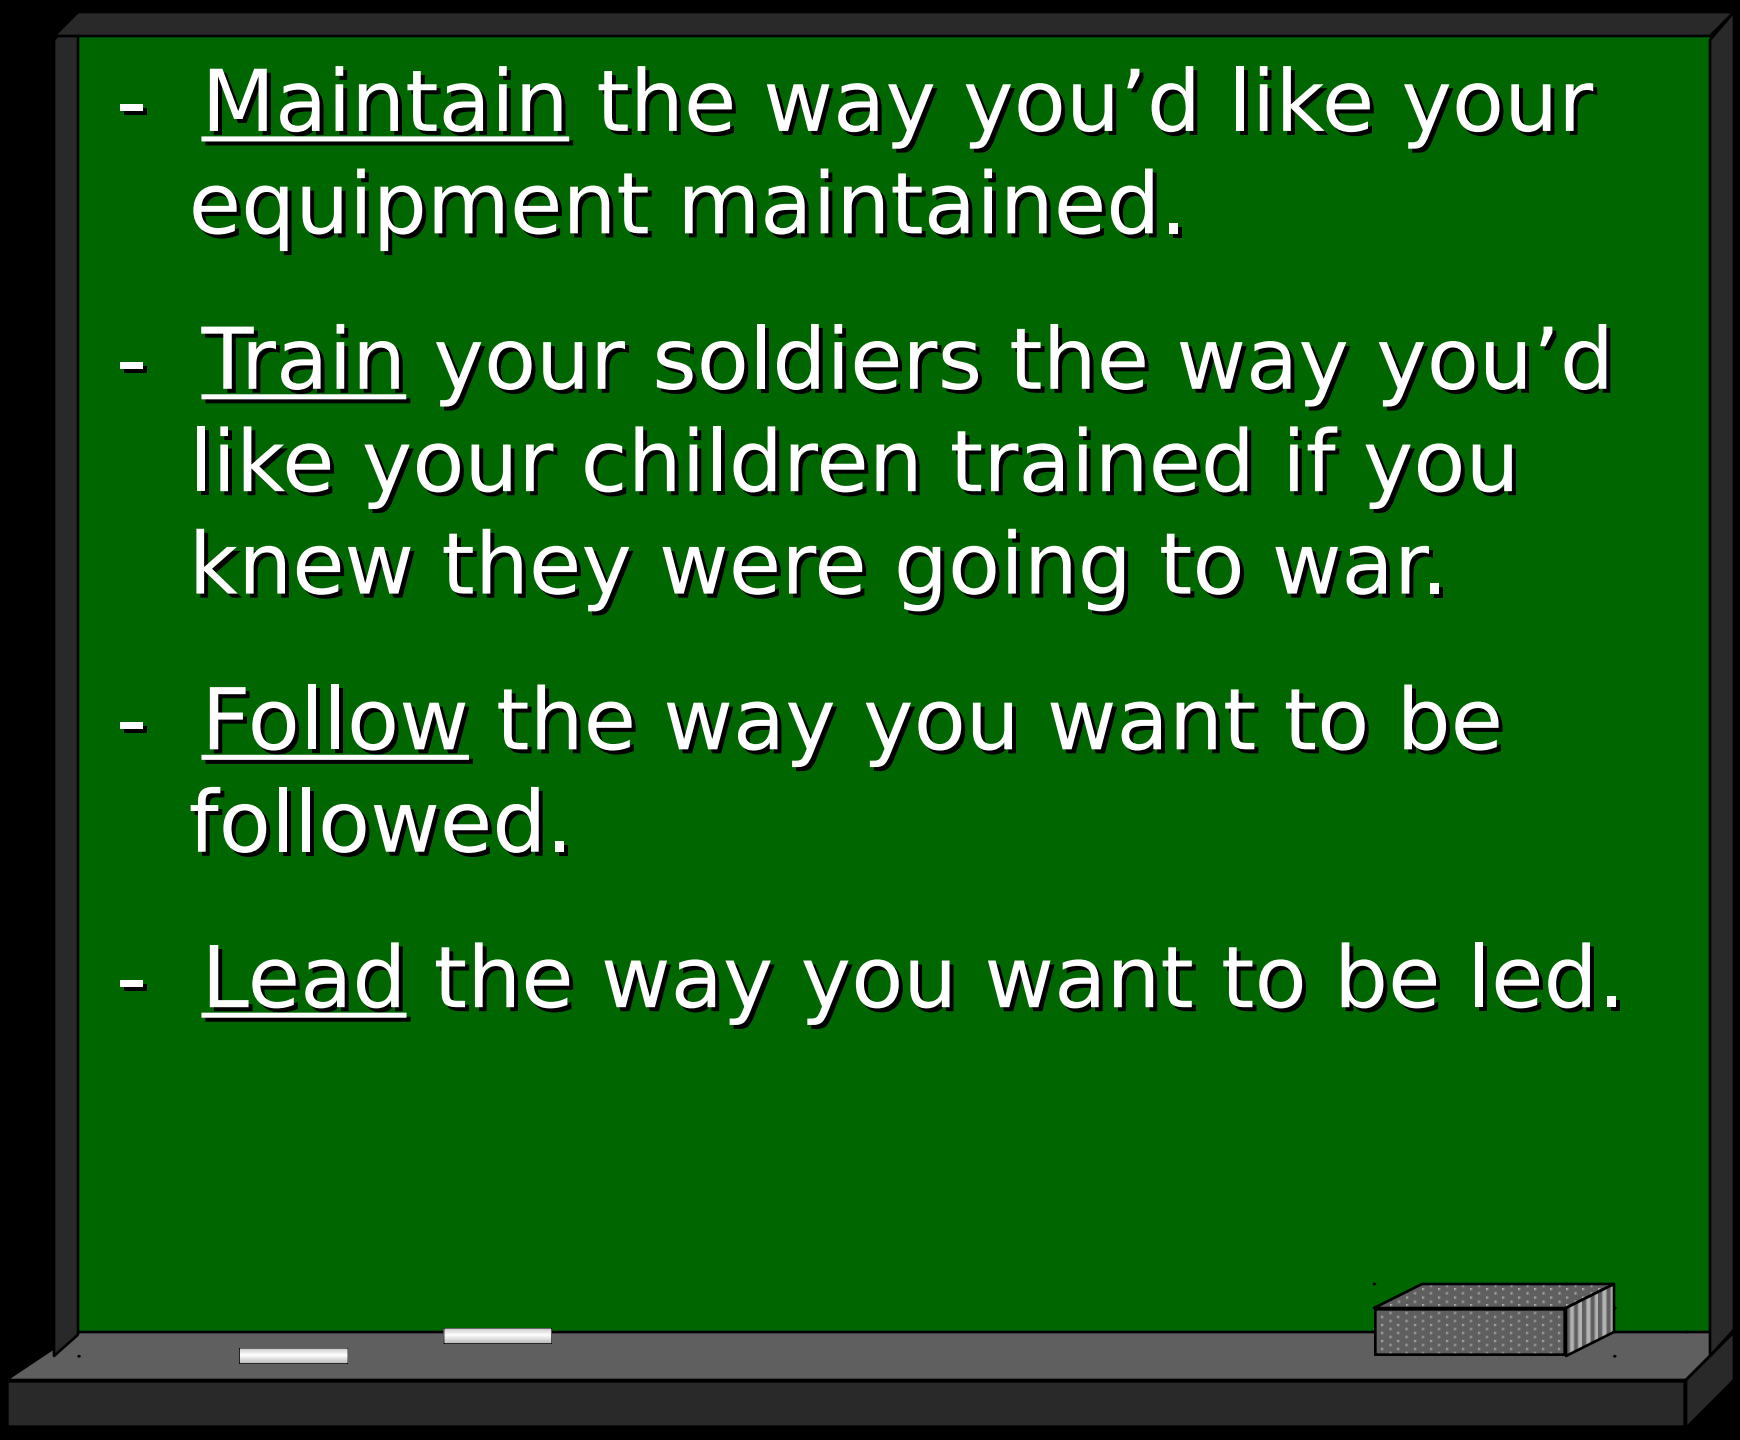
Friendship
Work
Courage
Perseverance
Honesty
Loyalty
Faith
Selfless Service
Respect
Honor
Duty
Personal Courage
Integrity
Loyalty

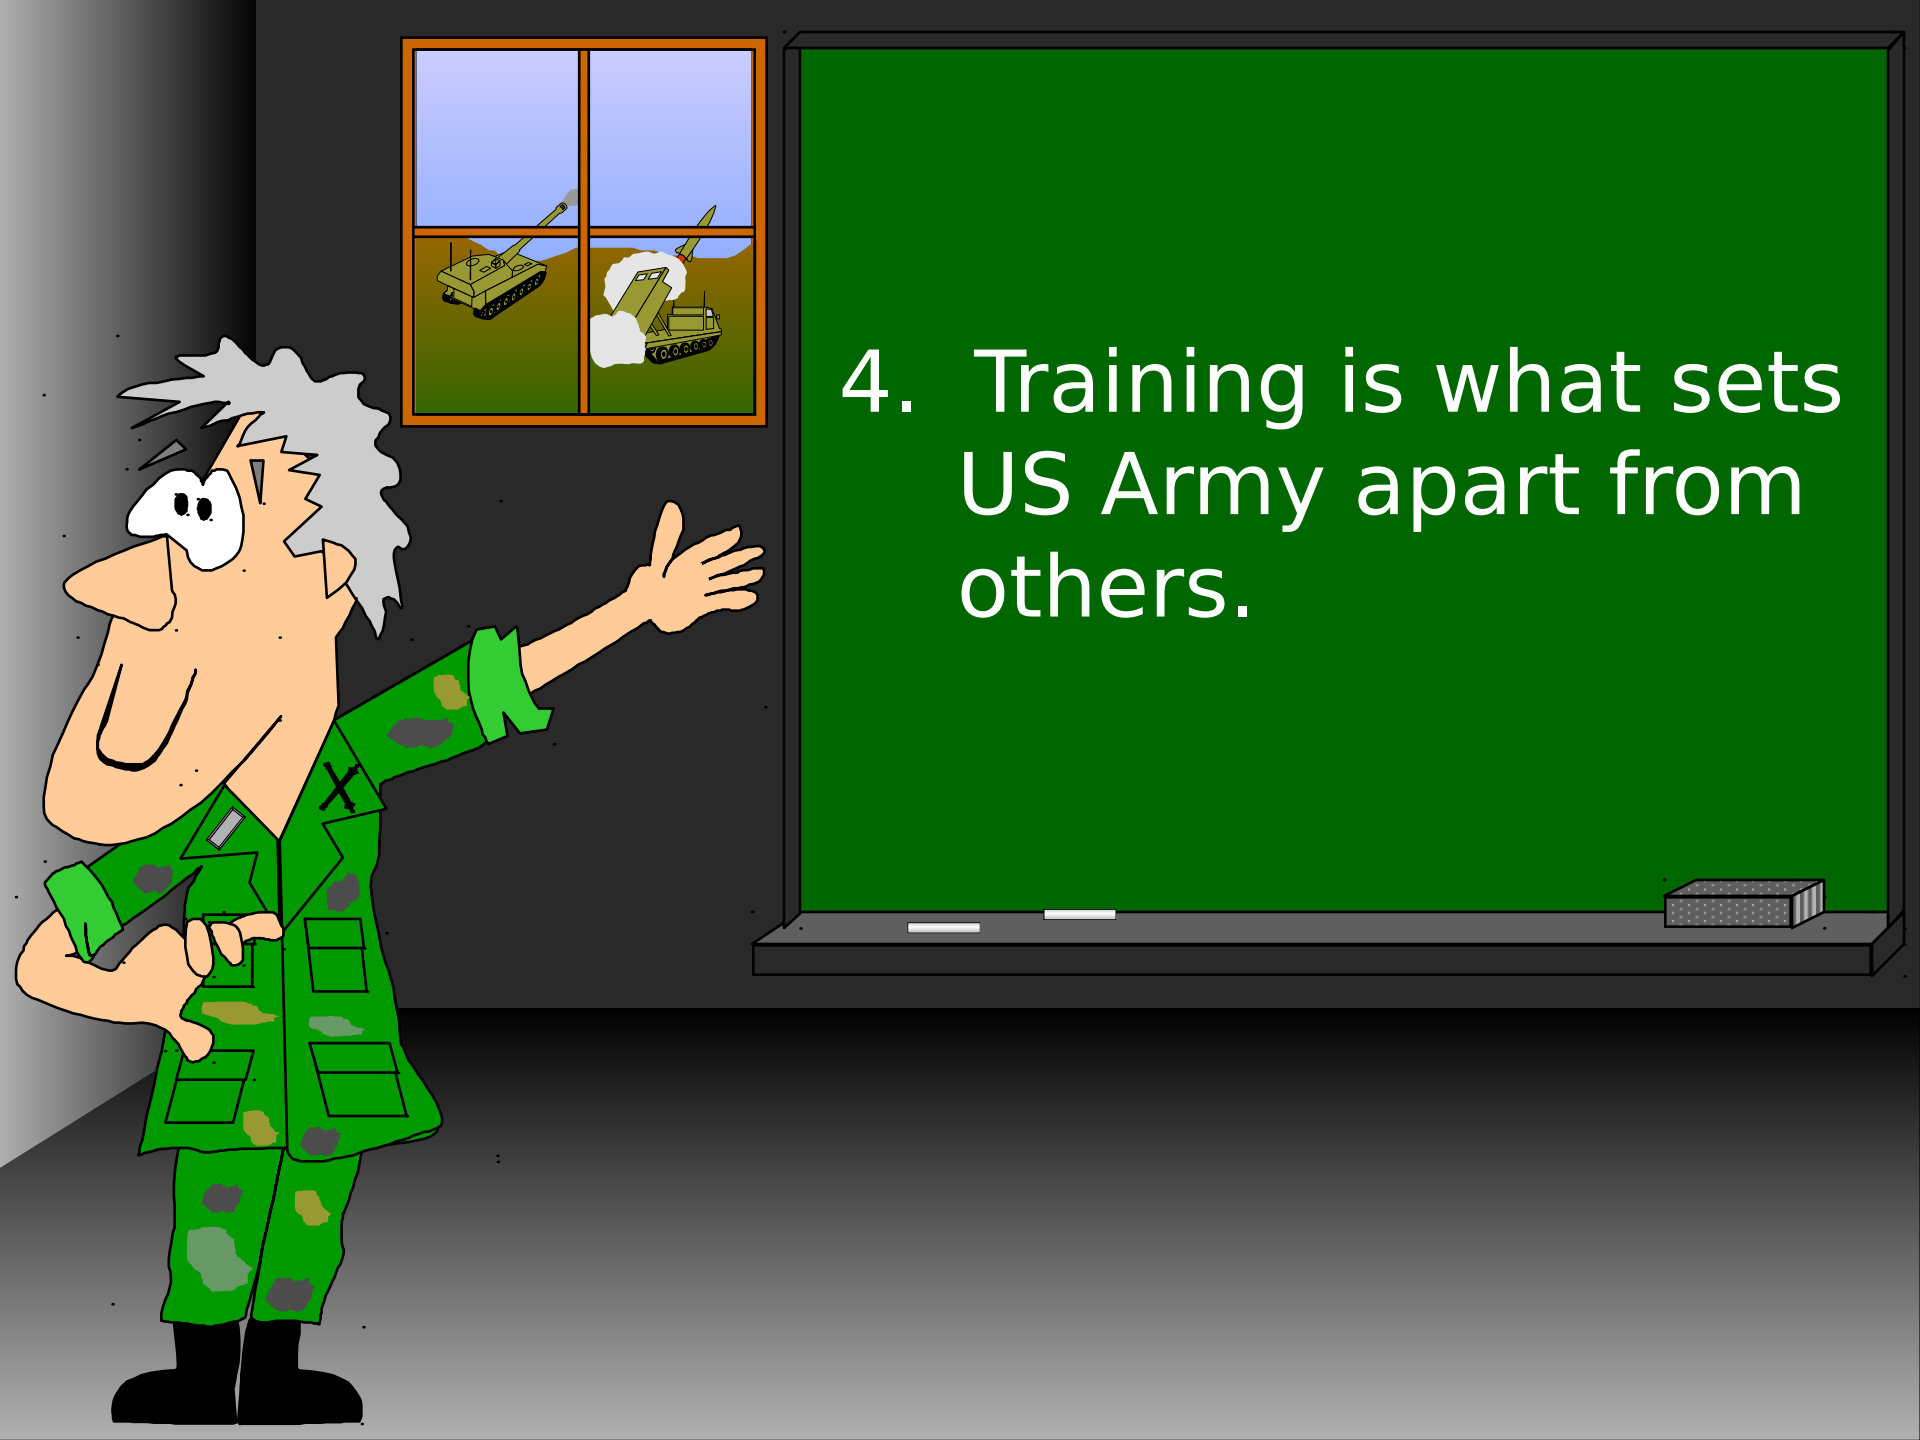


2. Write it down

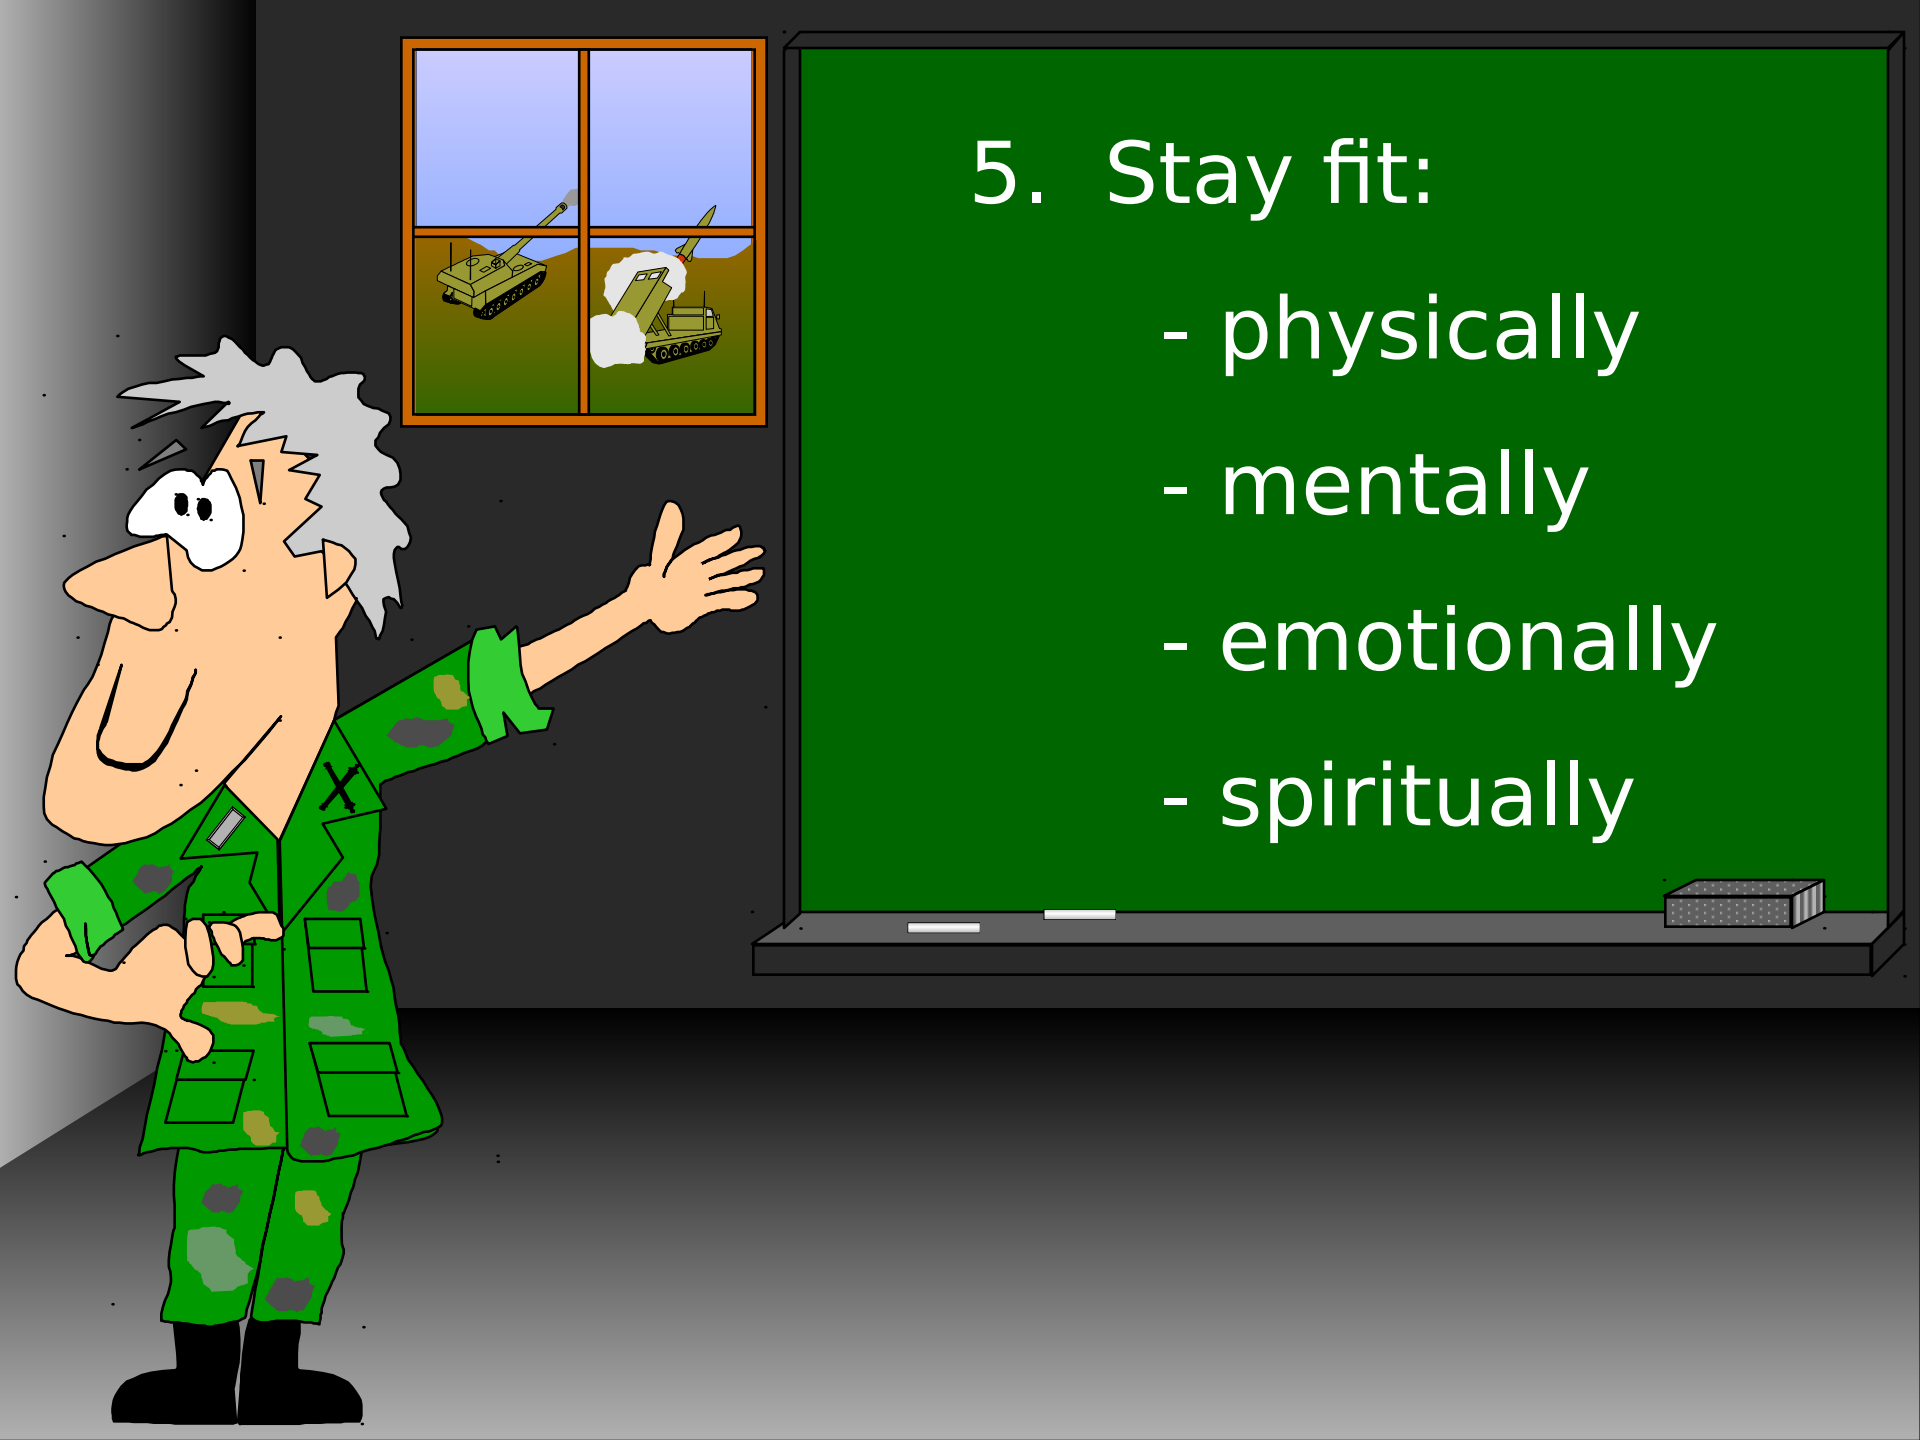
3. The Golden Rule
Works

- Maintain the way you'd like your equipment maintained.
- Train your soldiers the way you'd like your children trained if you knew they were going to war.
- Follow the way you want to be followed.
- Lead the way you want to be led.



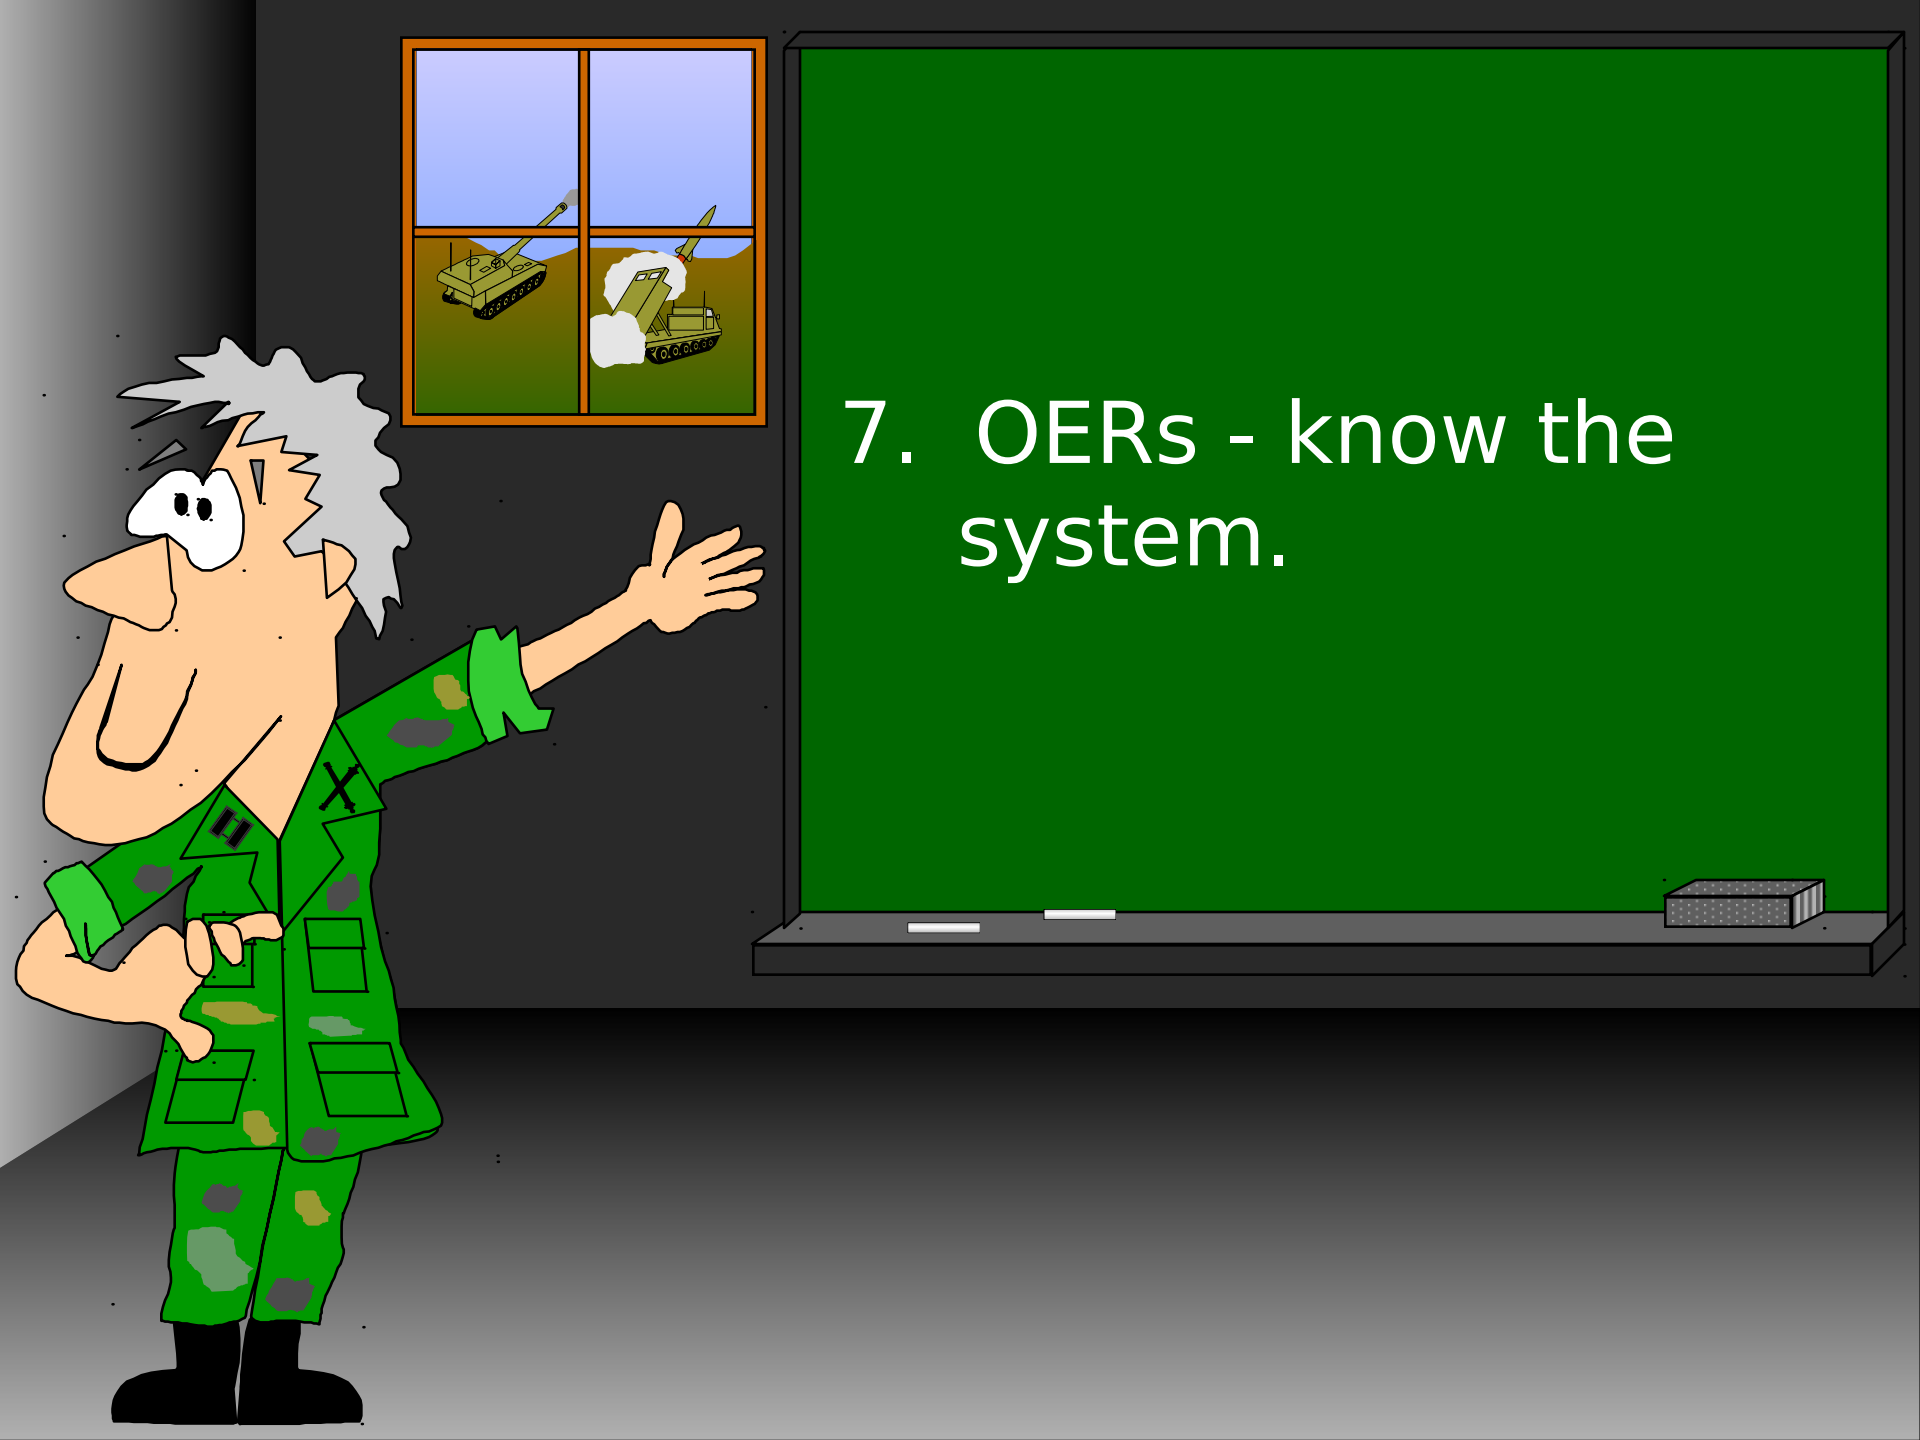


4. Training is what sets US Army apart from others.



5. Stay fit:
- physically
- mentally
- emotionally
- spiritually

6. A finger and thumb’s worth of spaghetti feeds about four people.



7. OERs - know the system.

8. Take prudent risks.

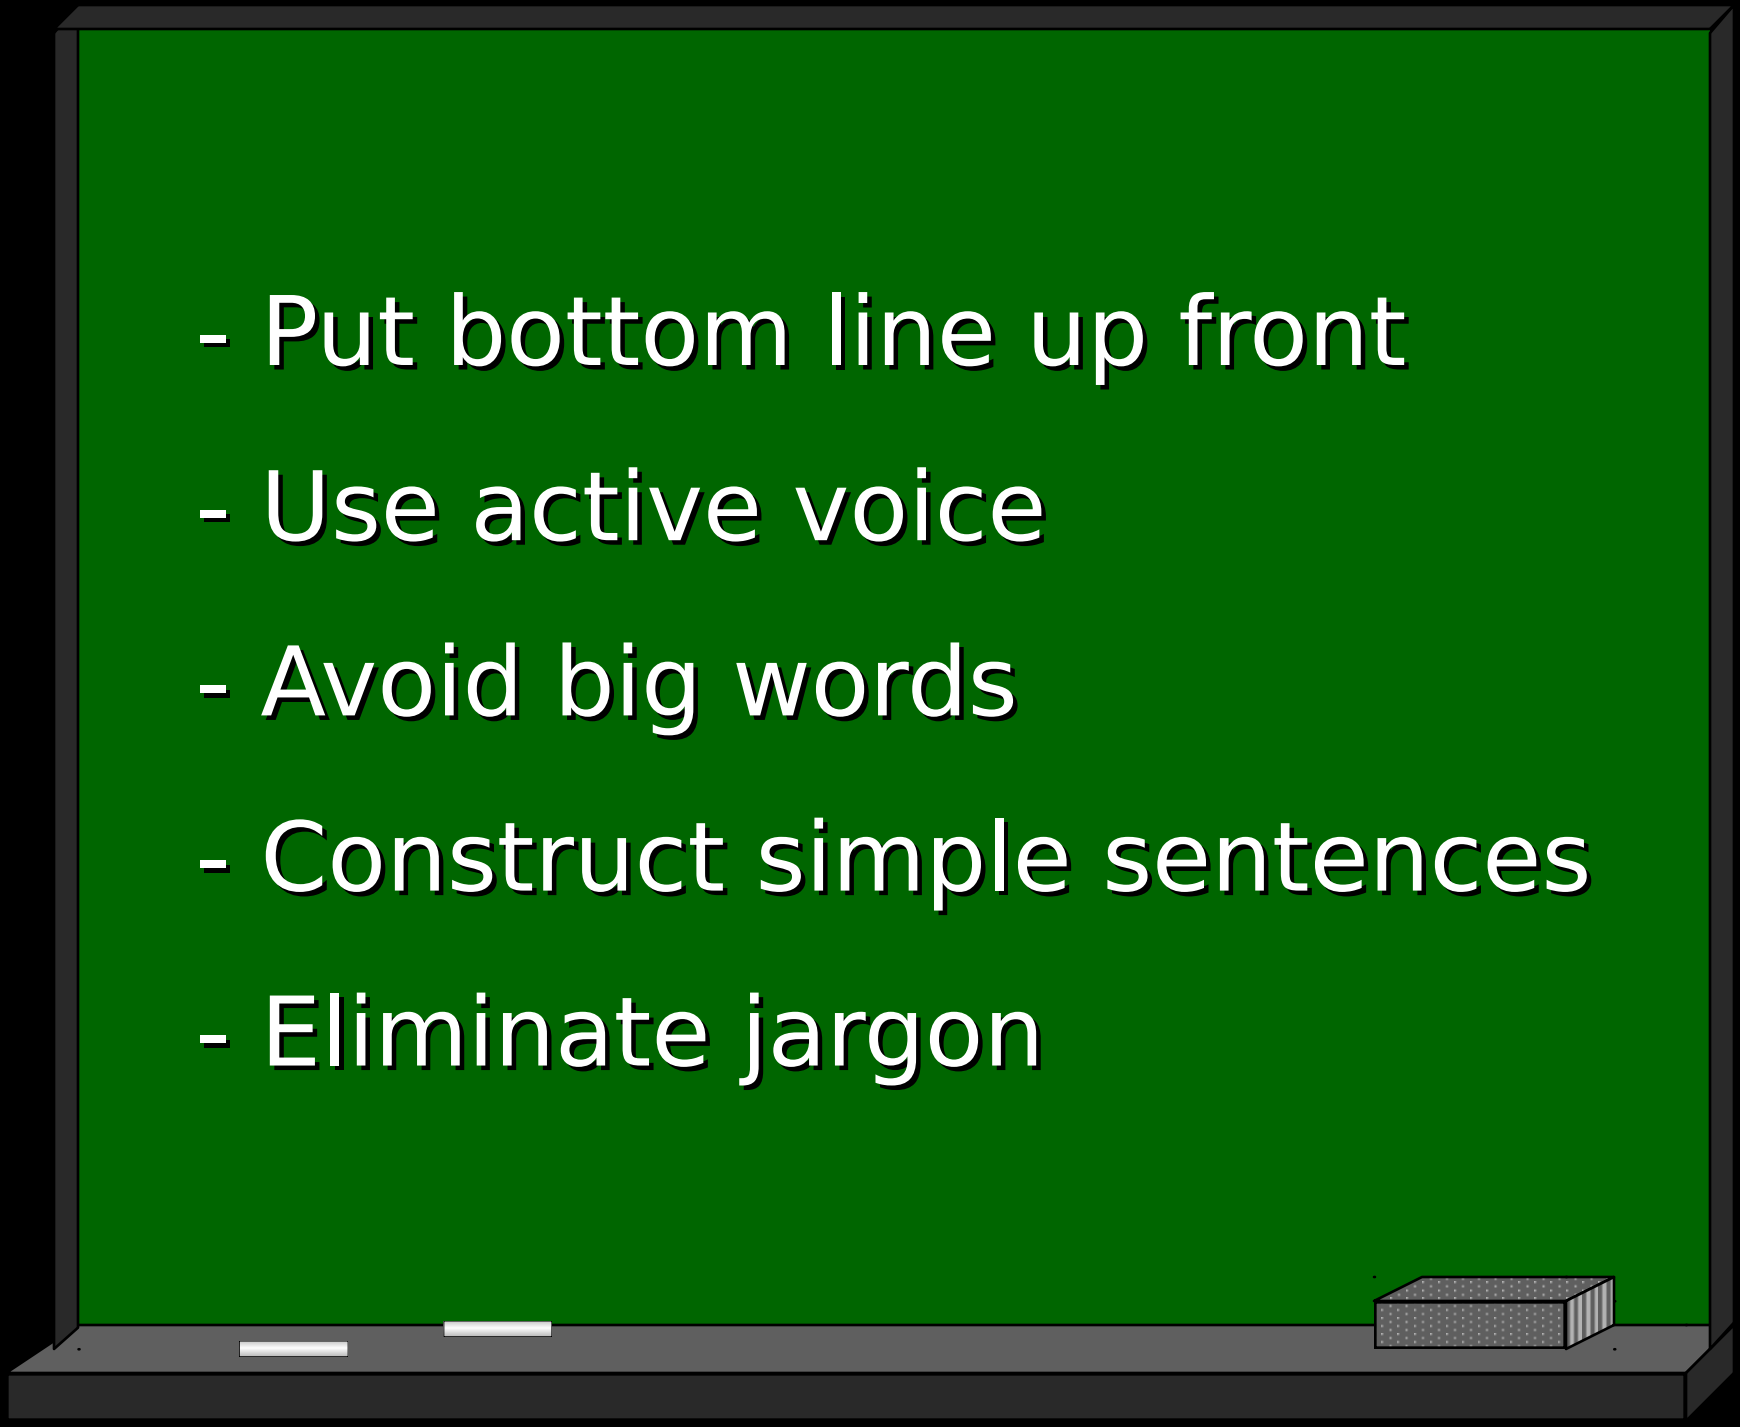
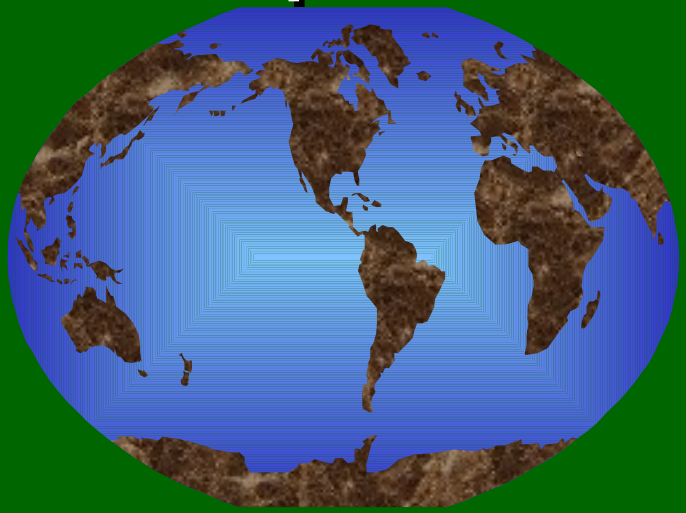
9. Writing skills say more than just the words you write.

- Put bottom line up front
- Use active voice
- Avoid big words
- Construct simple sentences
- Eliminate jargon



10. Keep things in perspective.

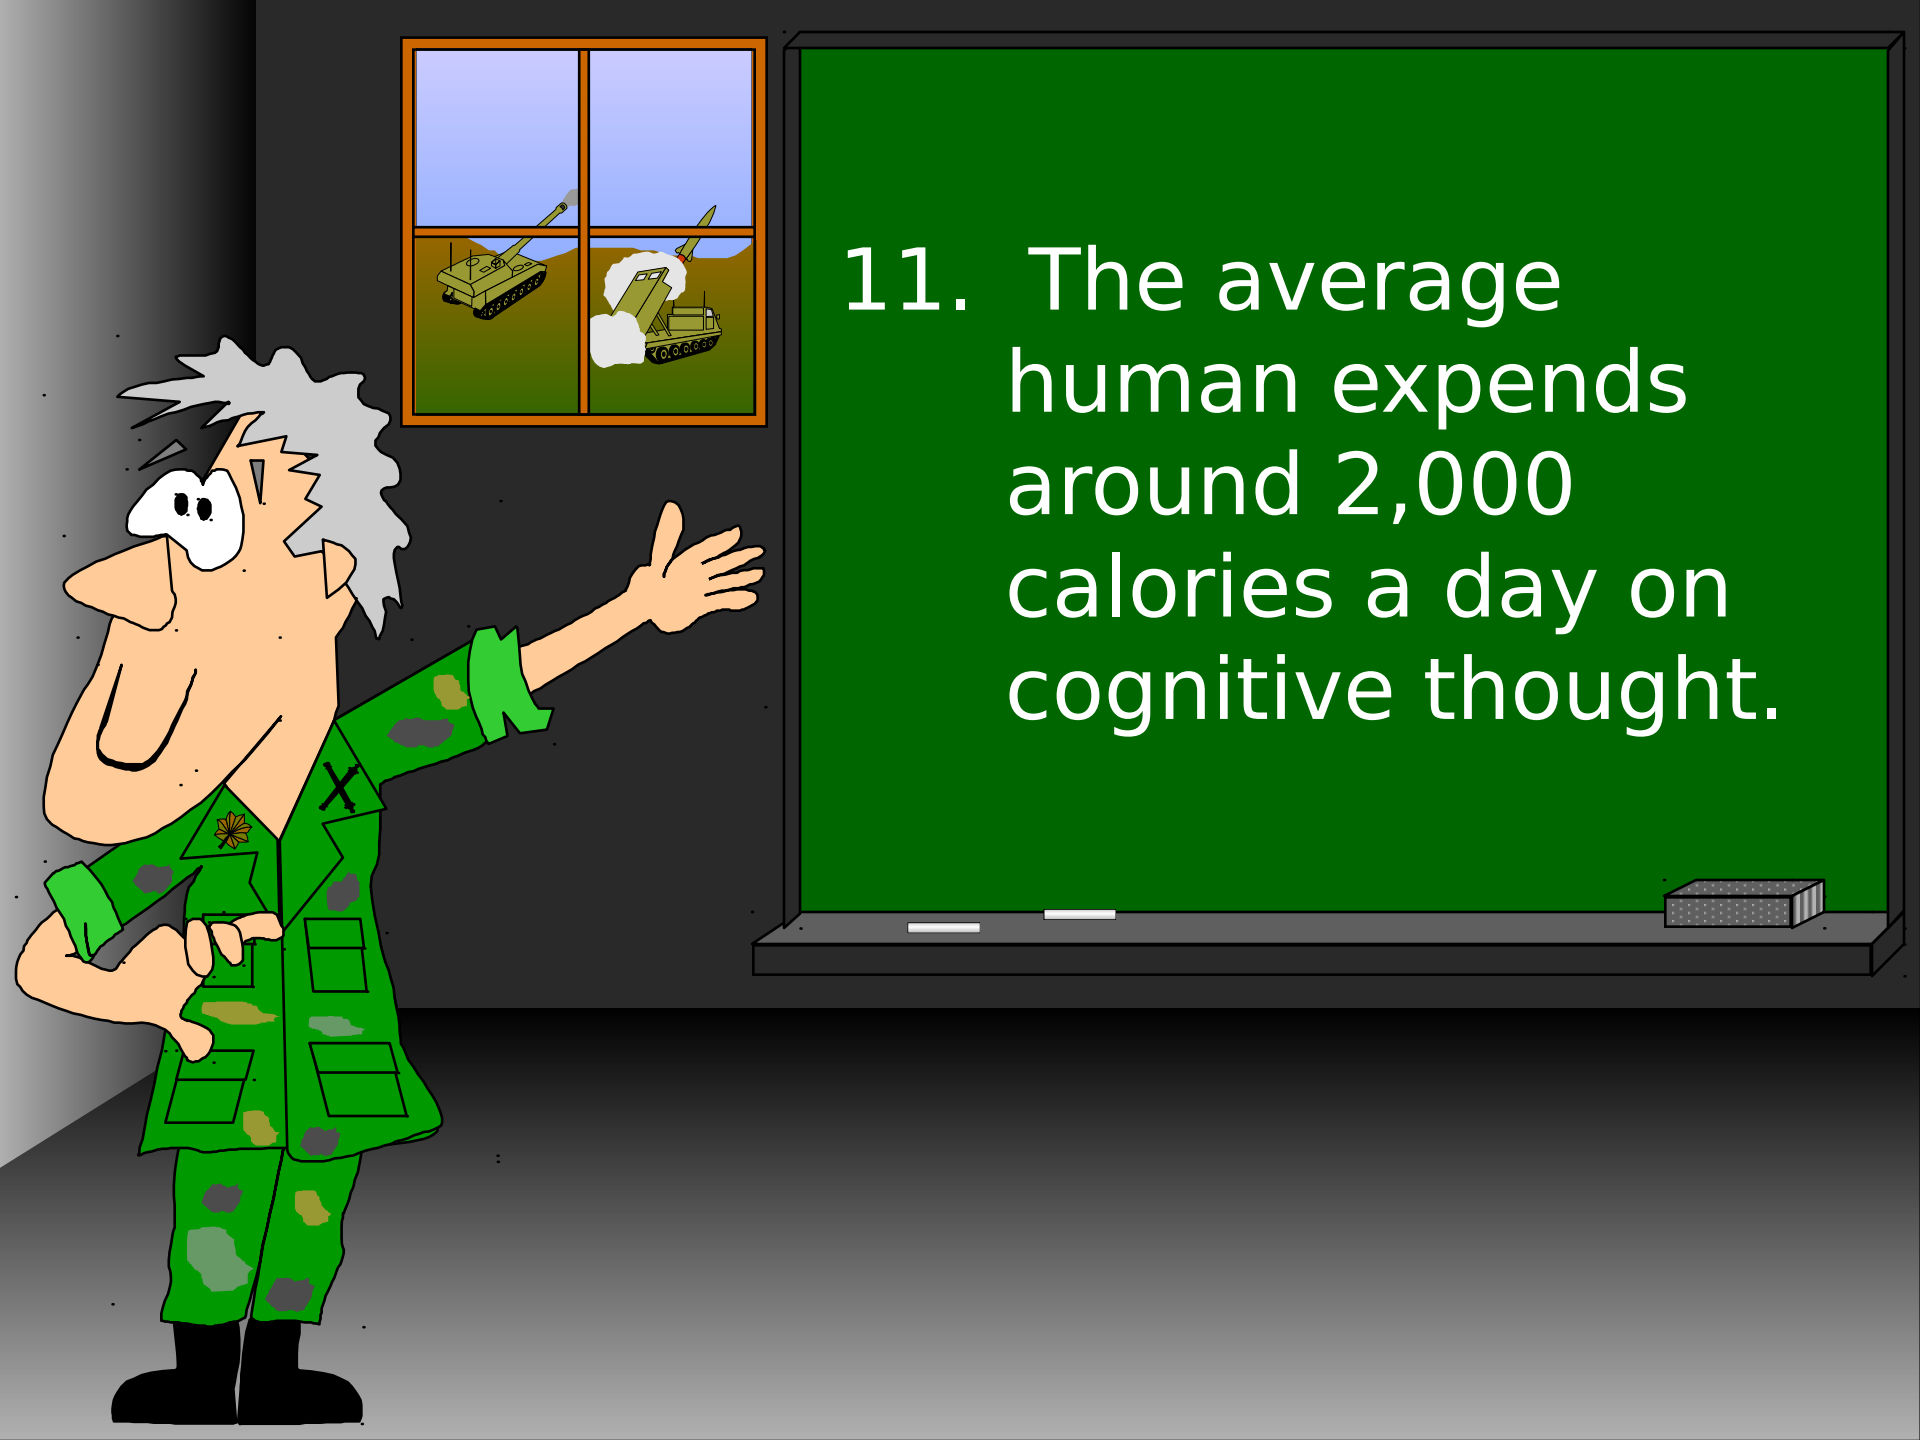
Perspective



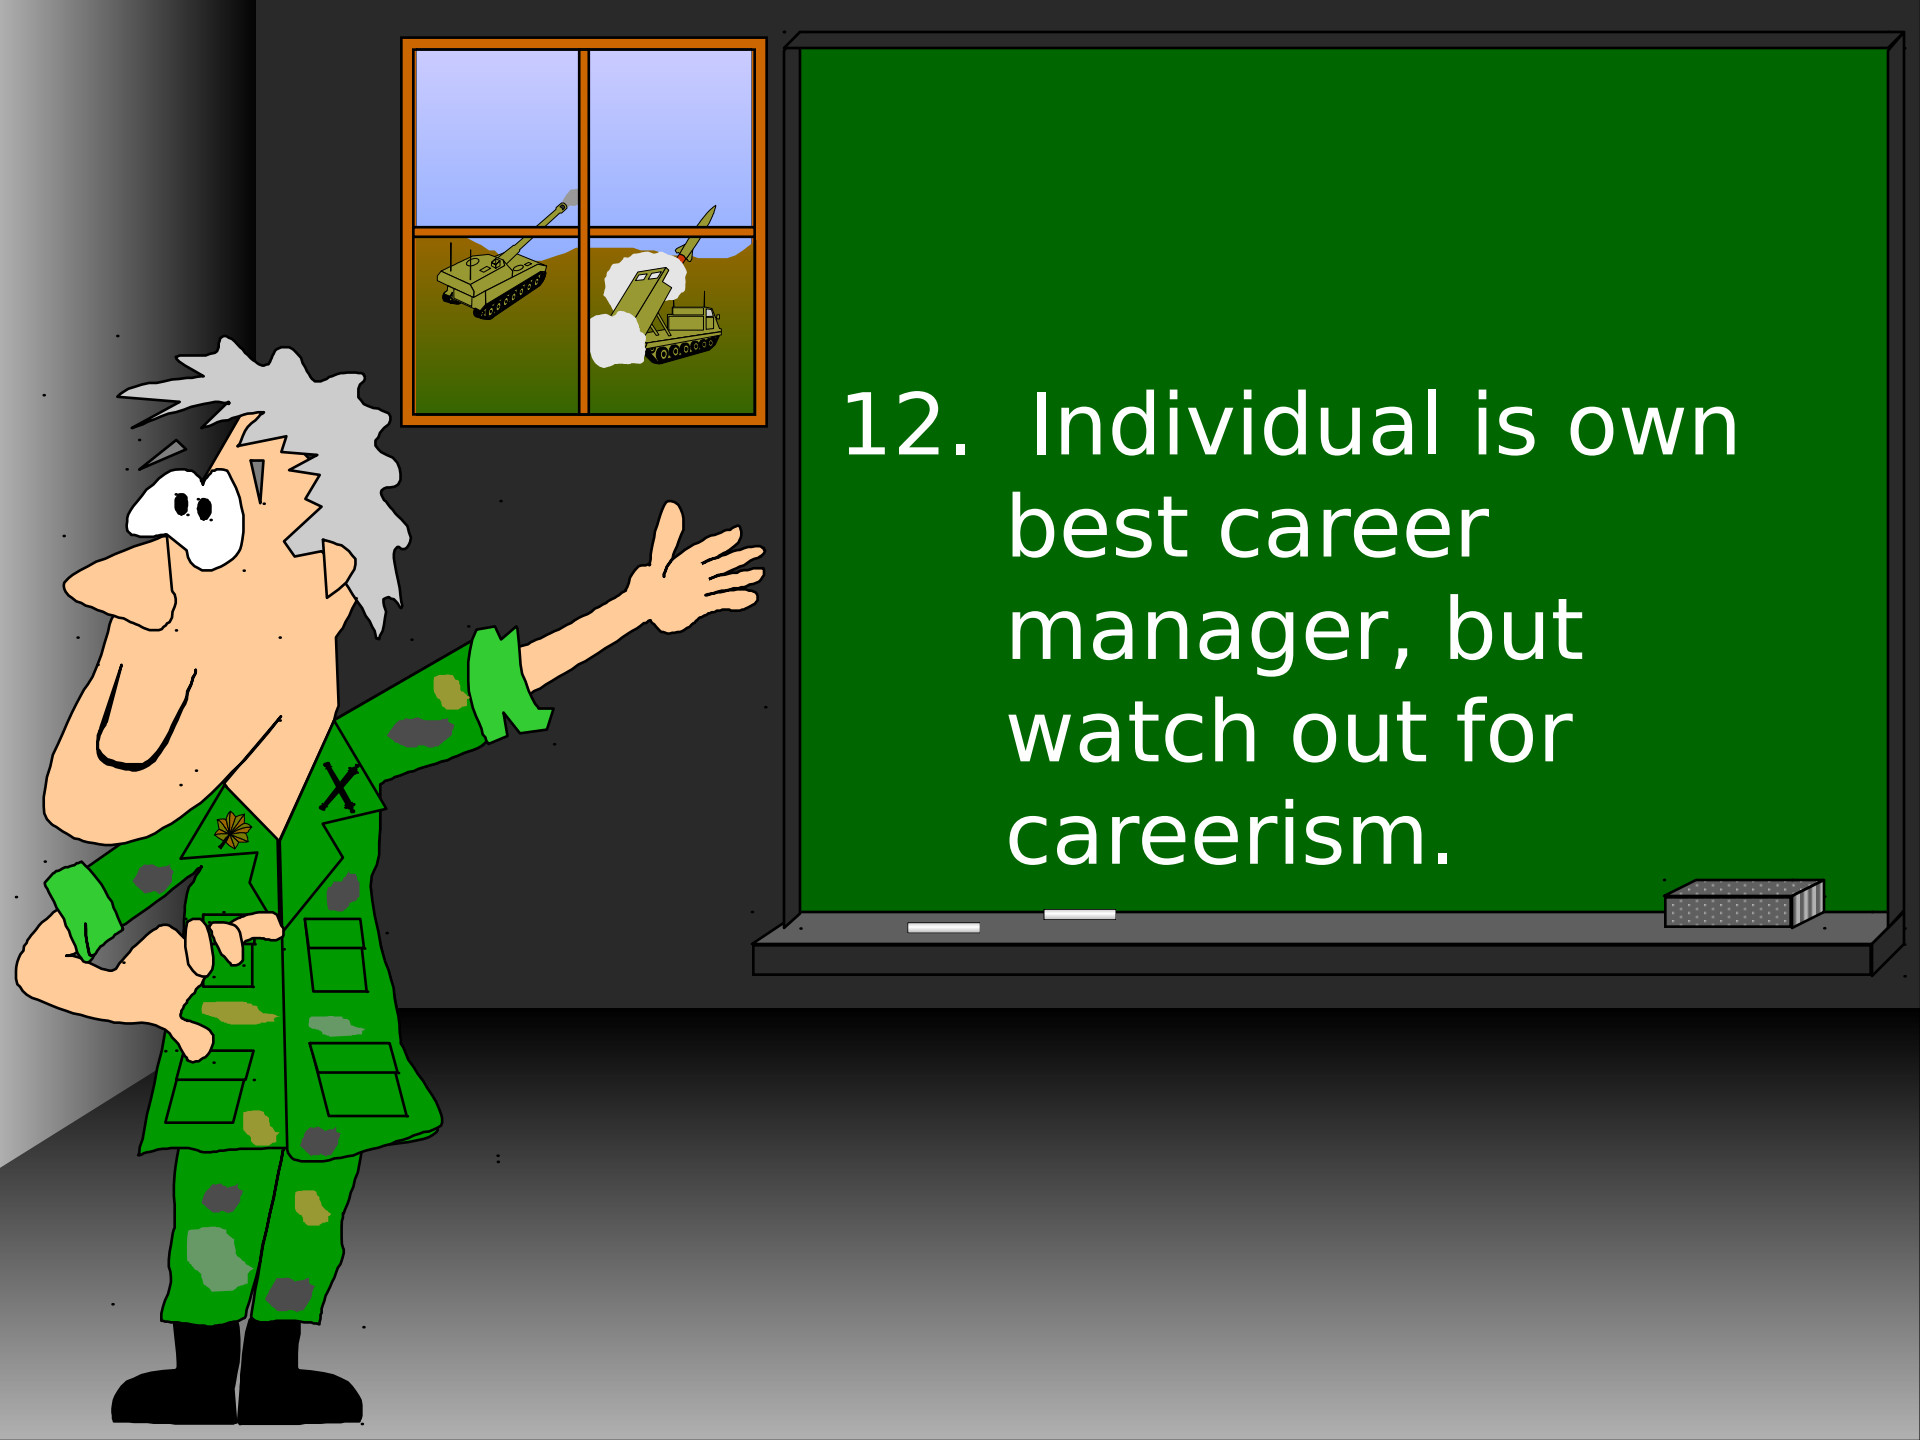
birth — death

time

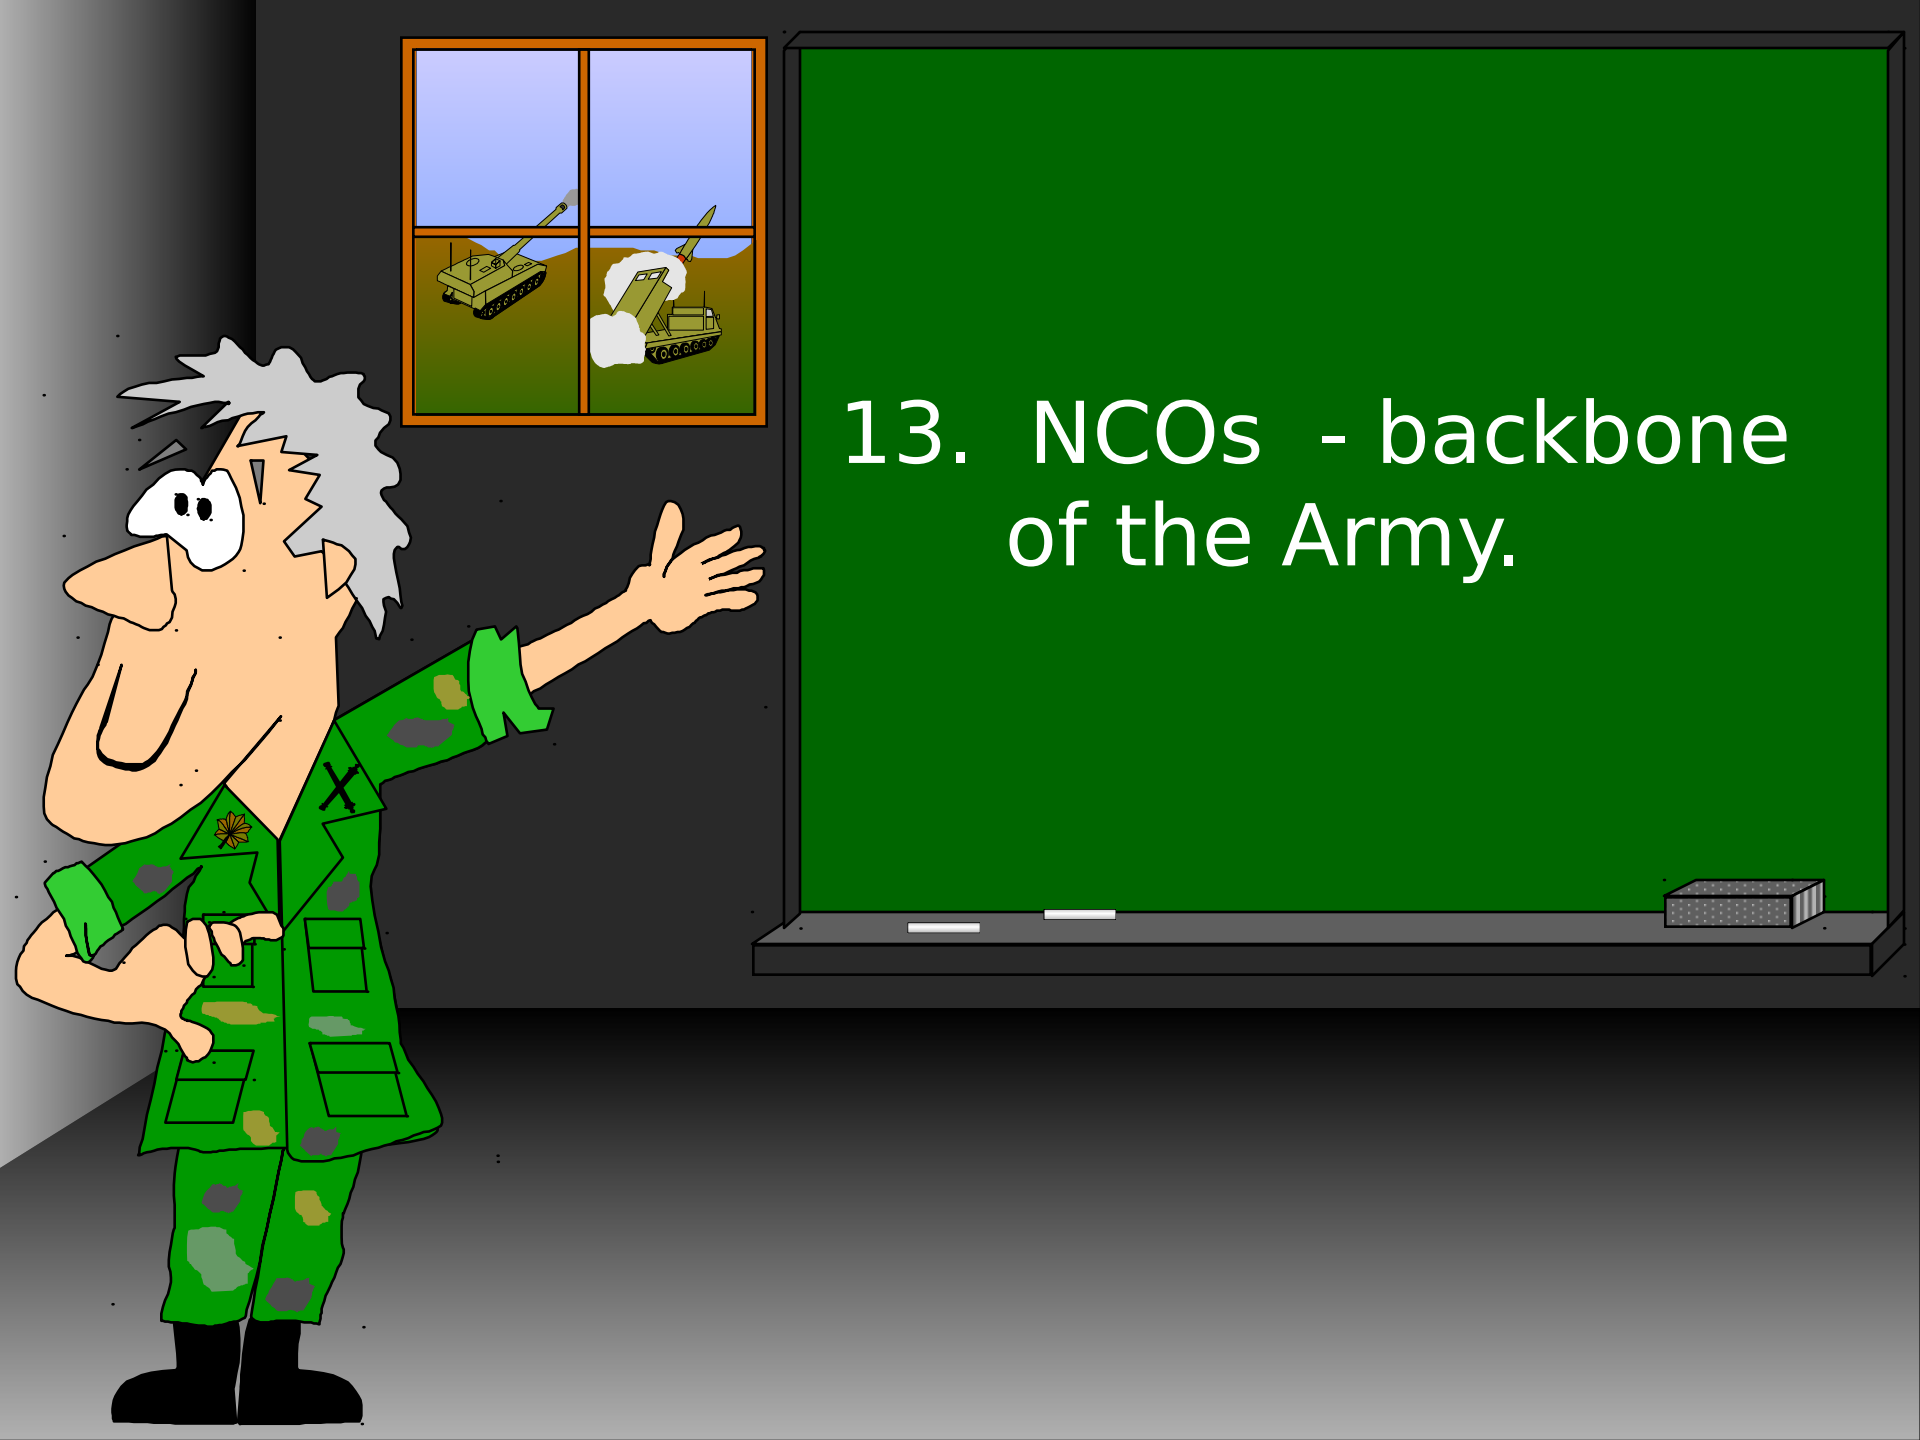
earth beginning — earth end



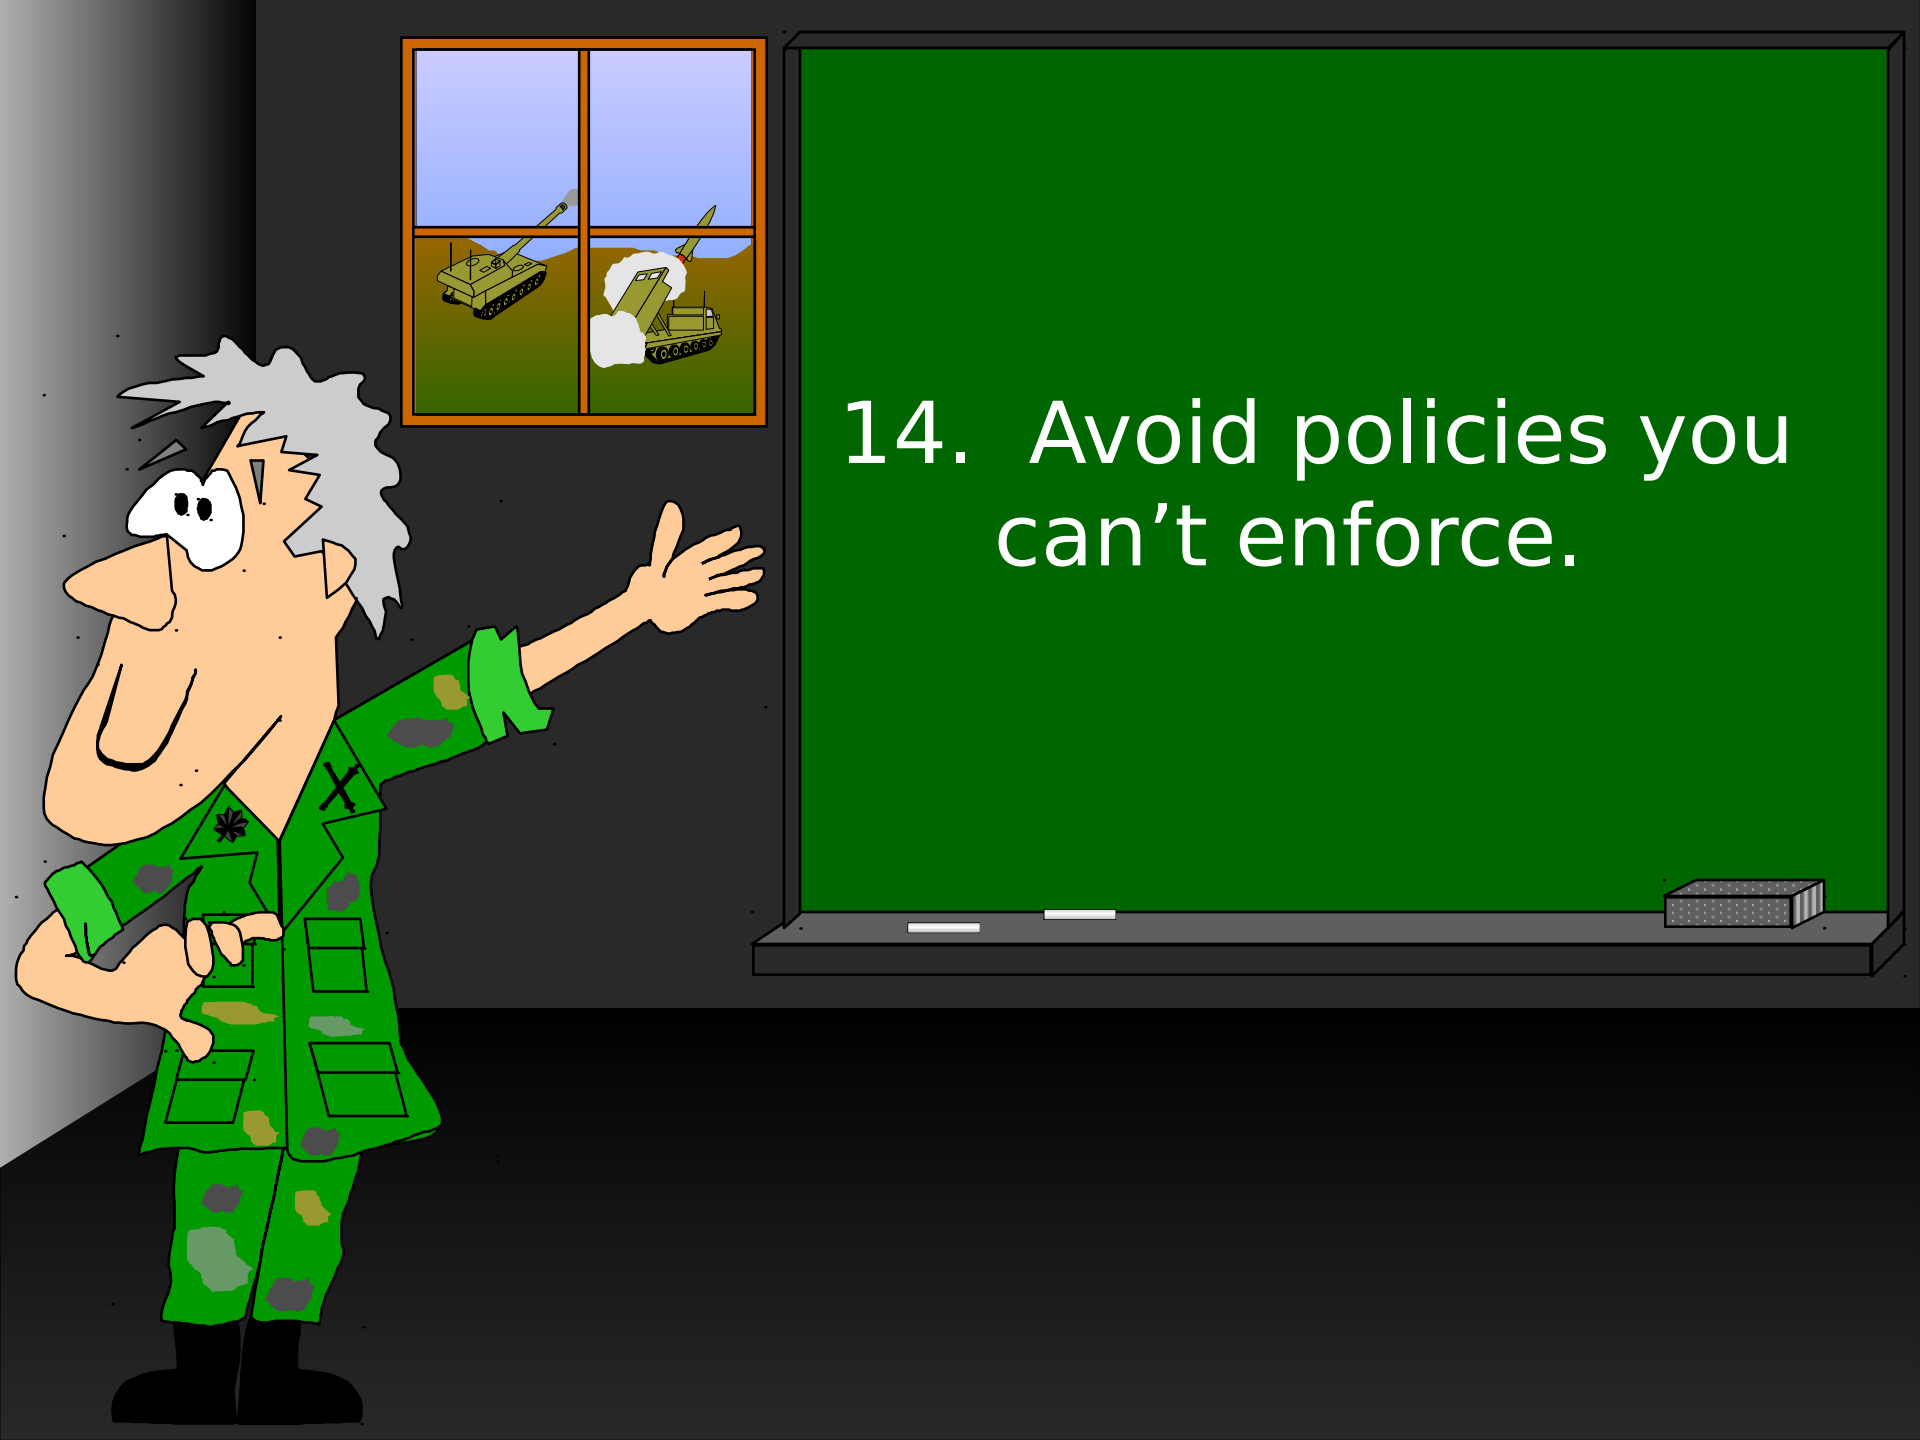
11. The average human expends around 2,000 calories a day on cognitive thought.



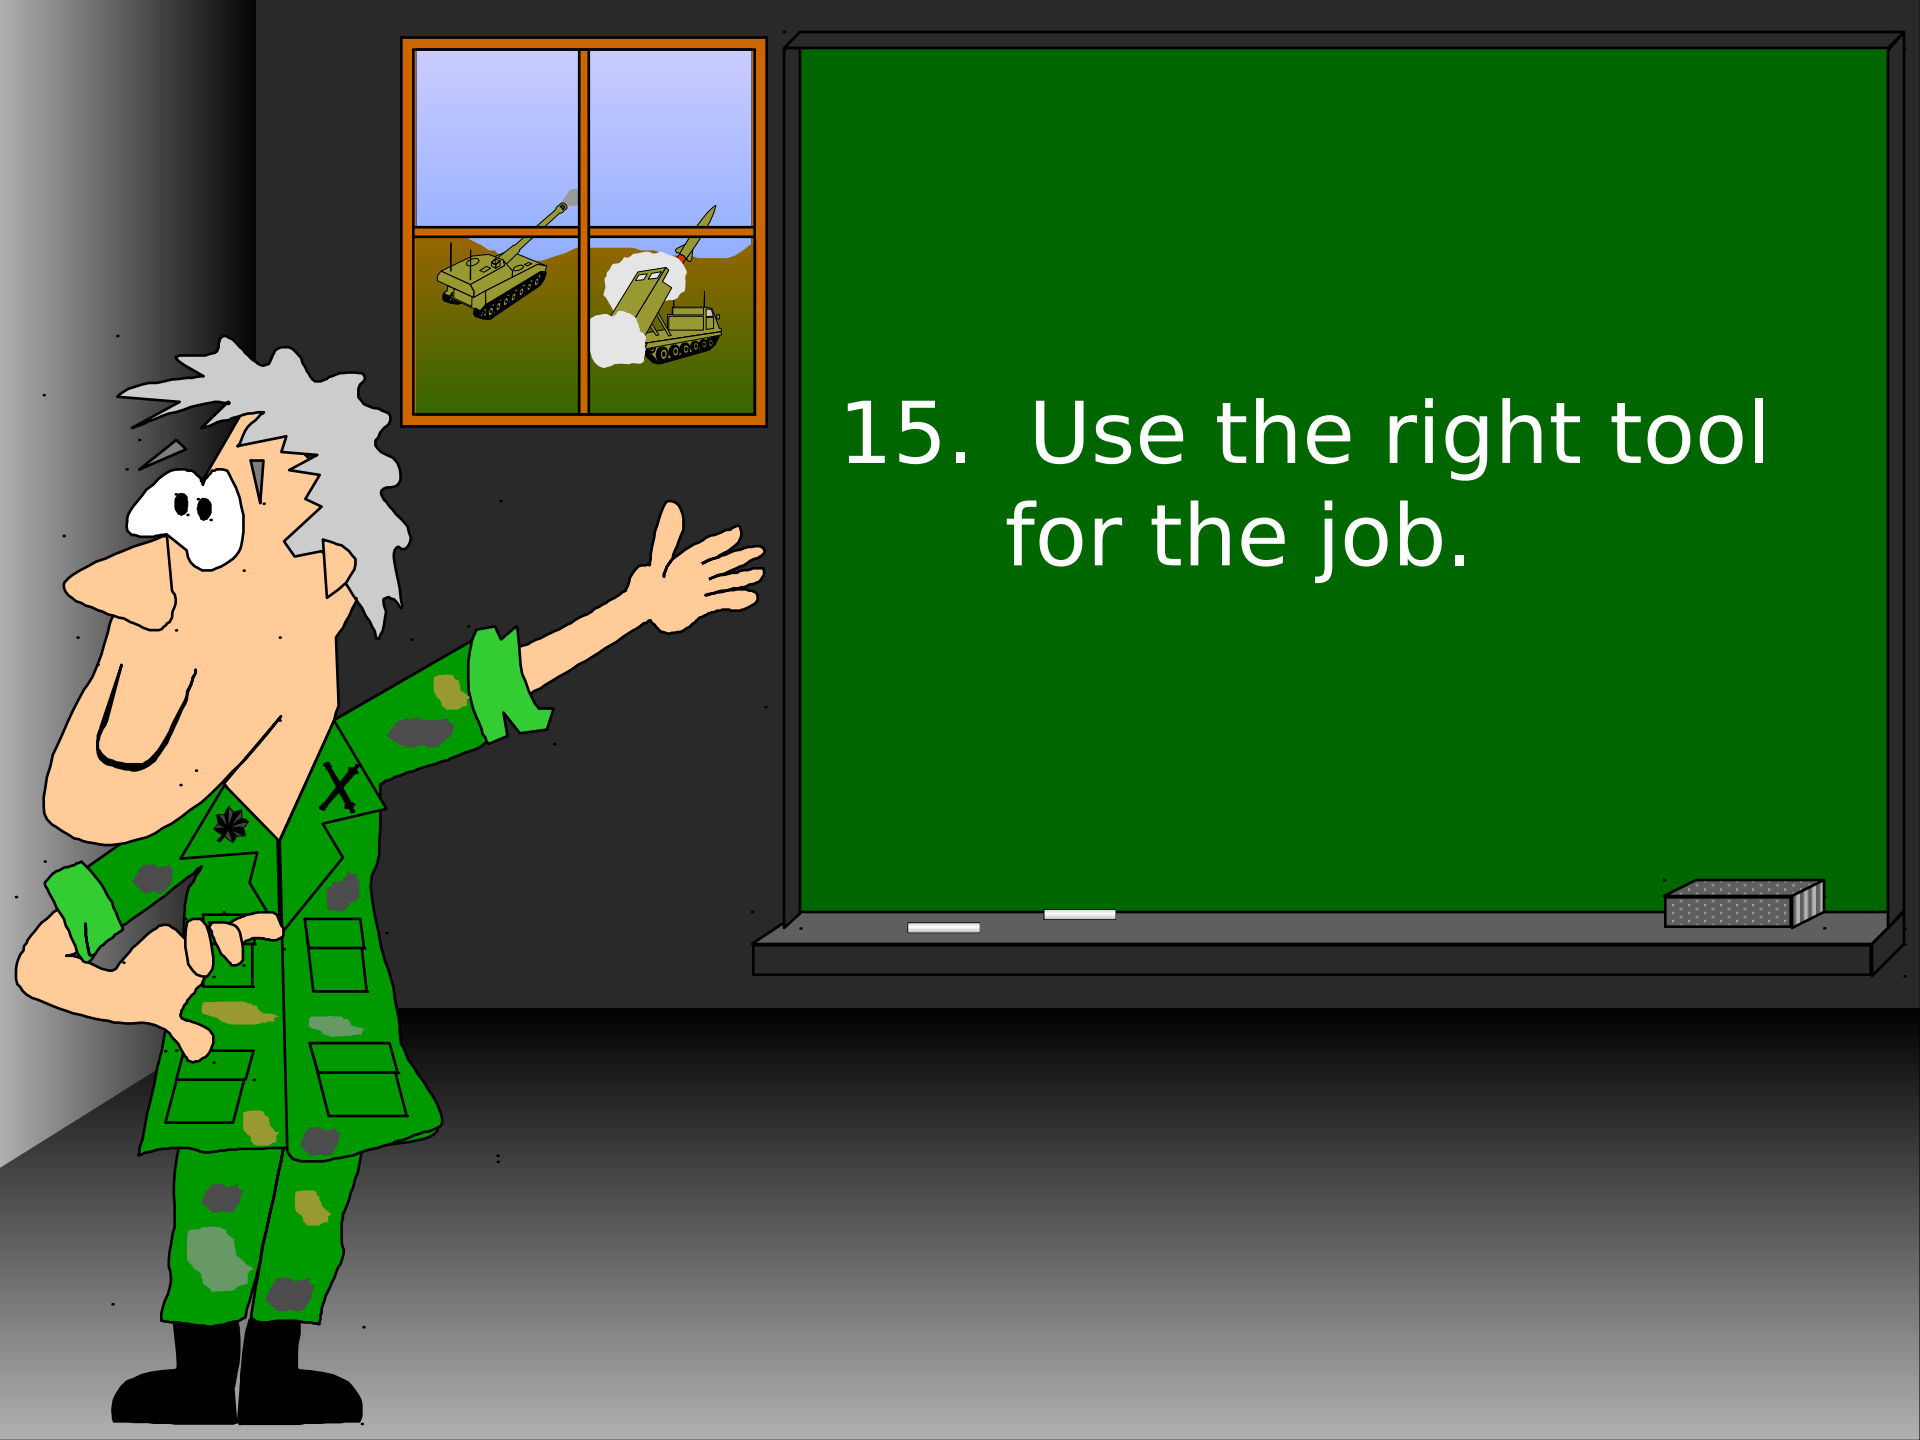
12. Individual is own best career manager, but watch out for careerism.



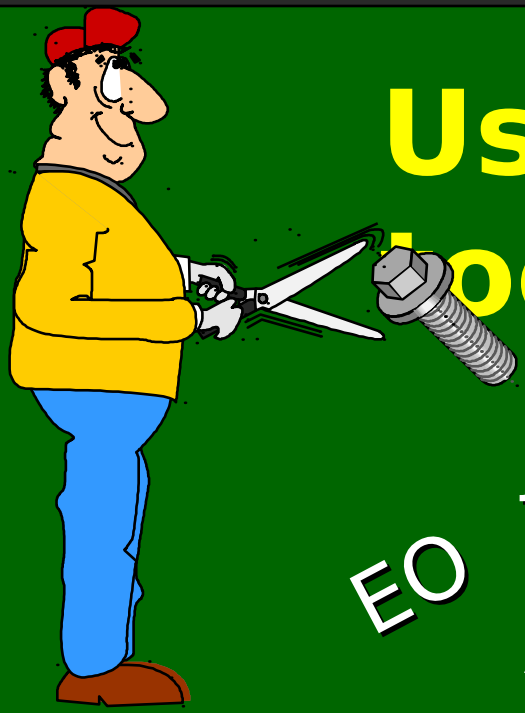
13. NCOs - backbone of the Army.



14. Avoid policies you can’t enforce.



15. Use the right tool for the job.



Use the right tool !

JAG

EO

AFTB

Administrative

- Counseling
- Letters
- Chapters

UCMJ

- Article 15
- Court Martial

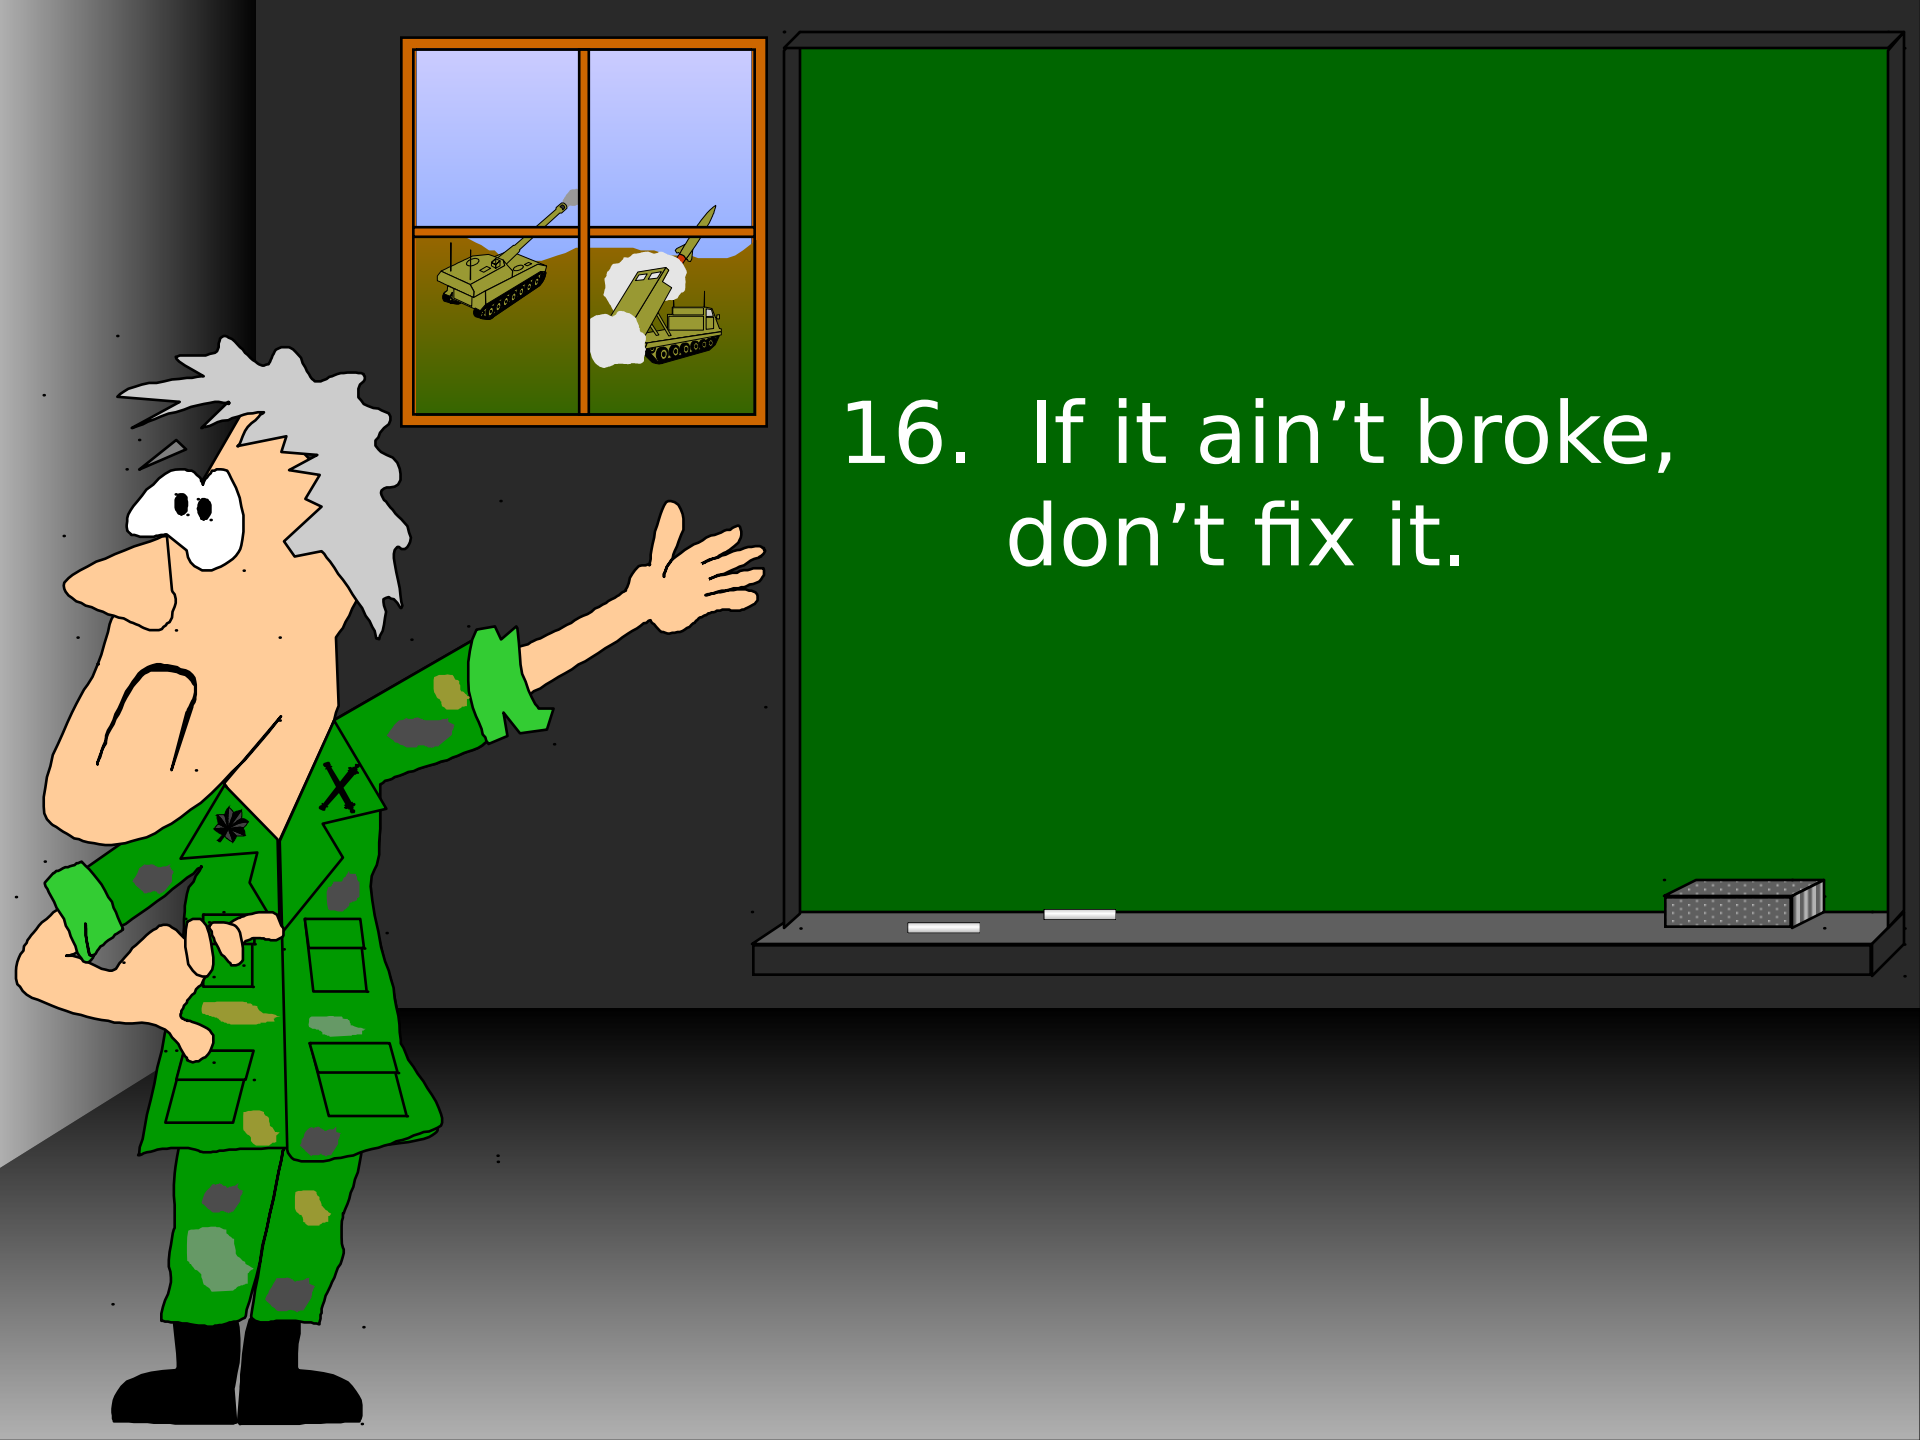
ACS

Chain of Command

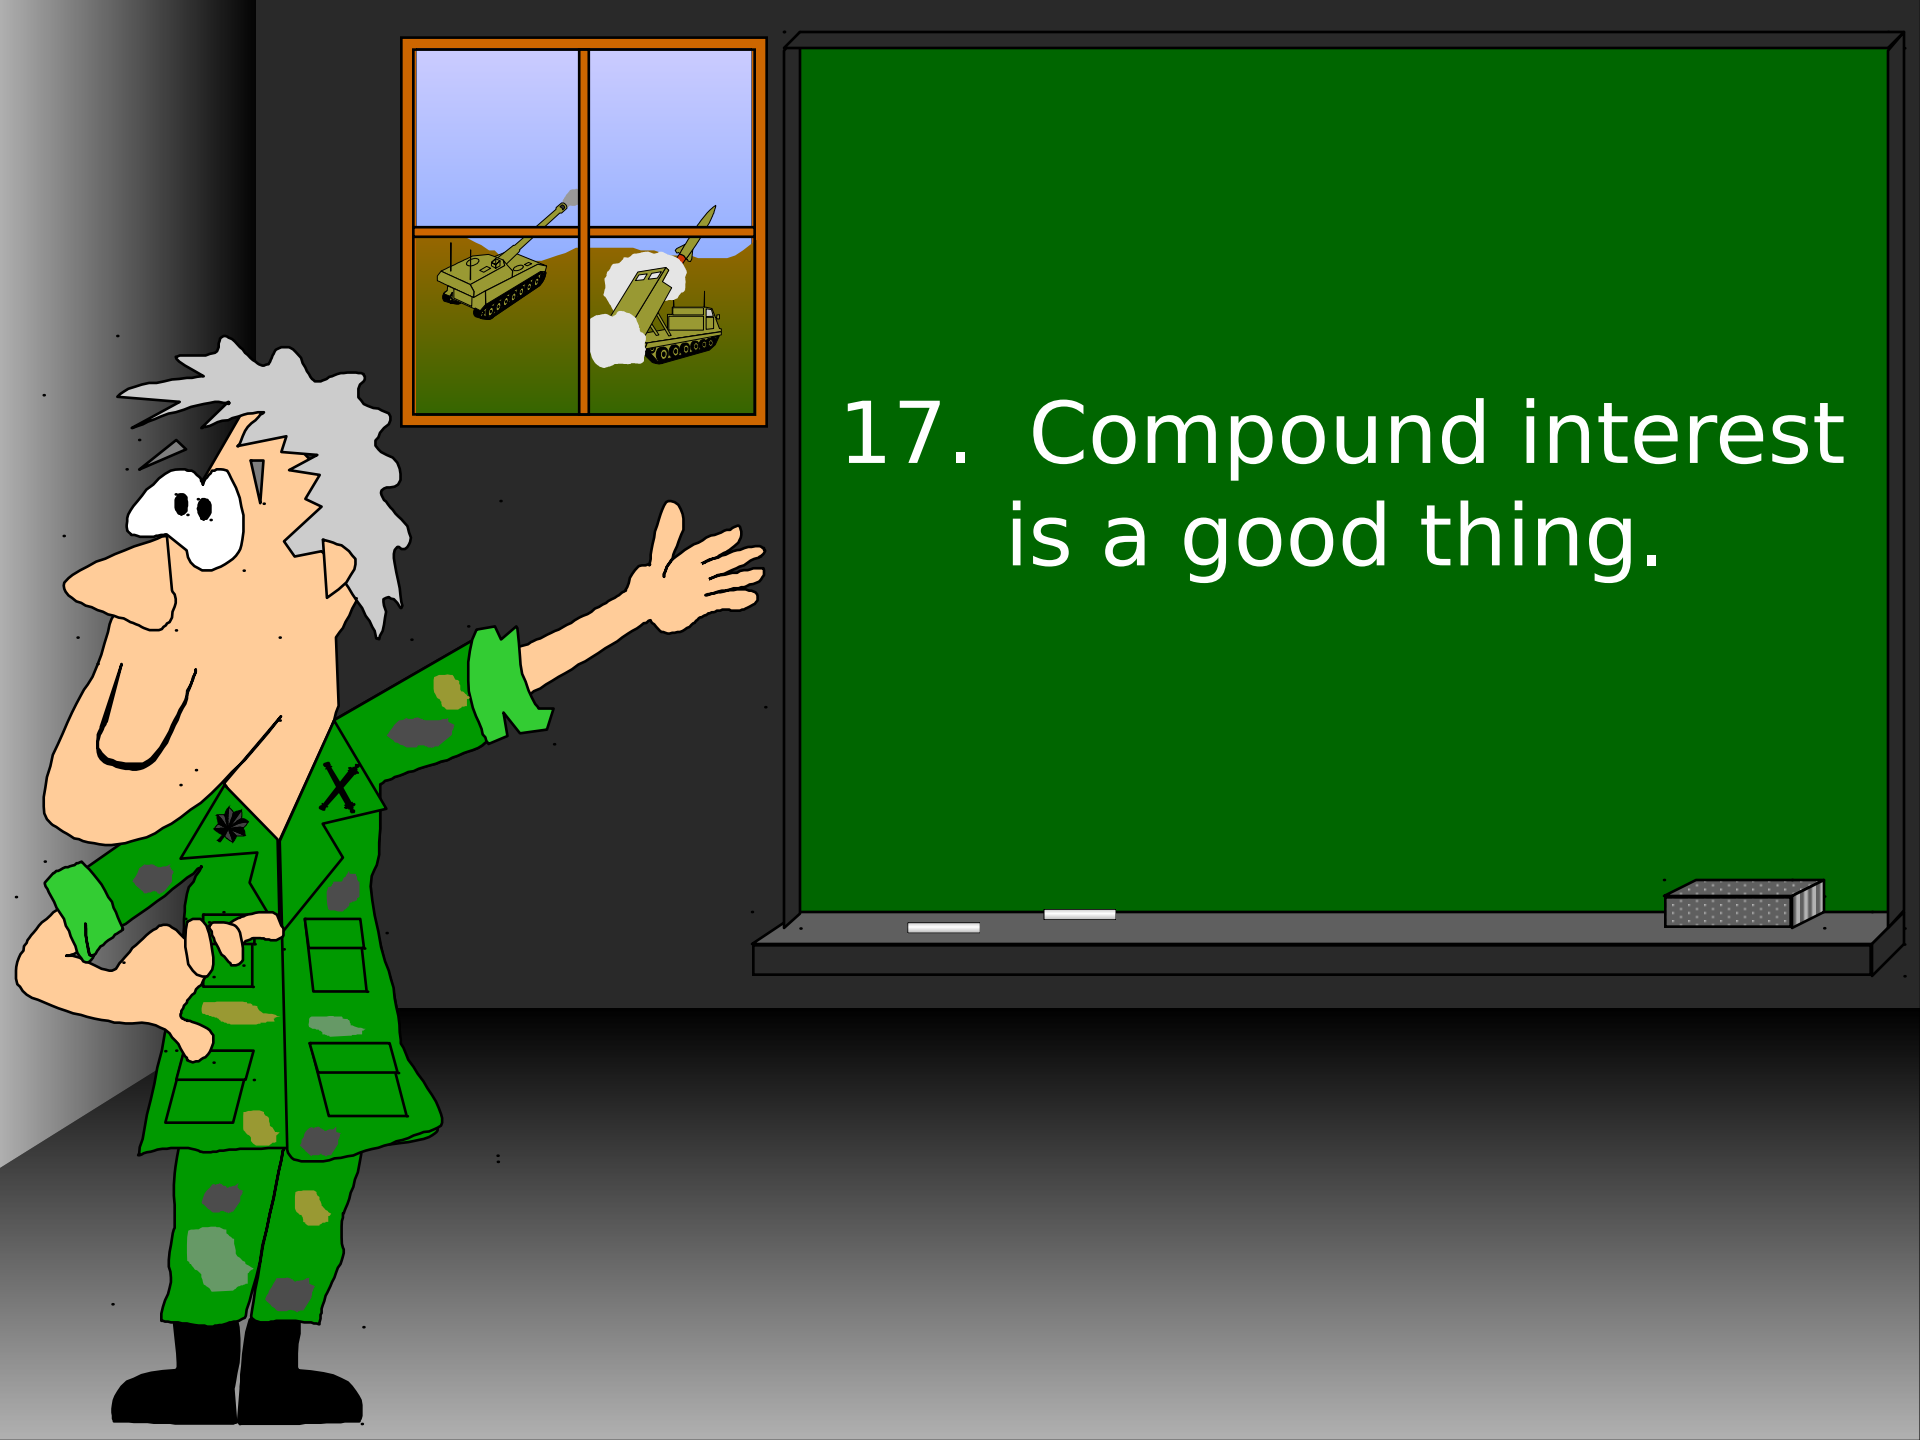
IG

Chaplain

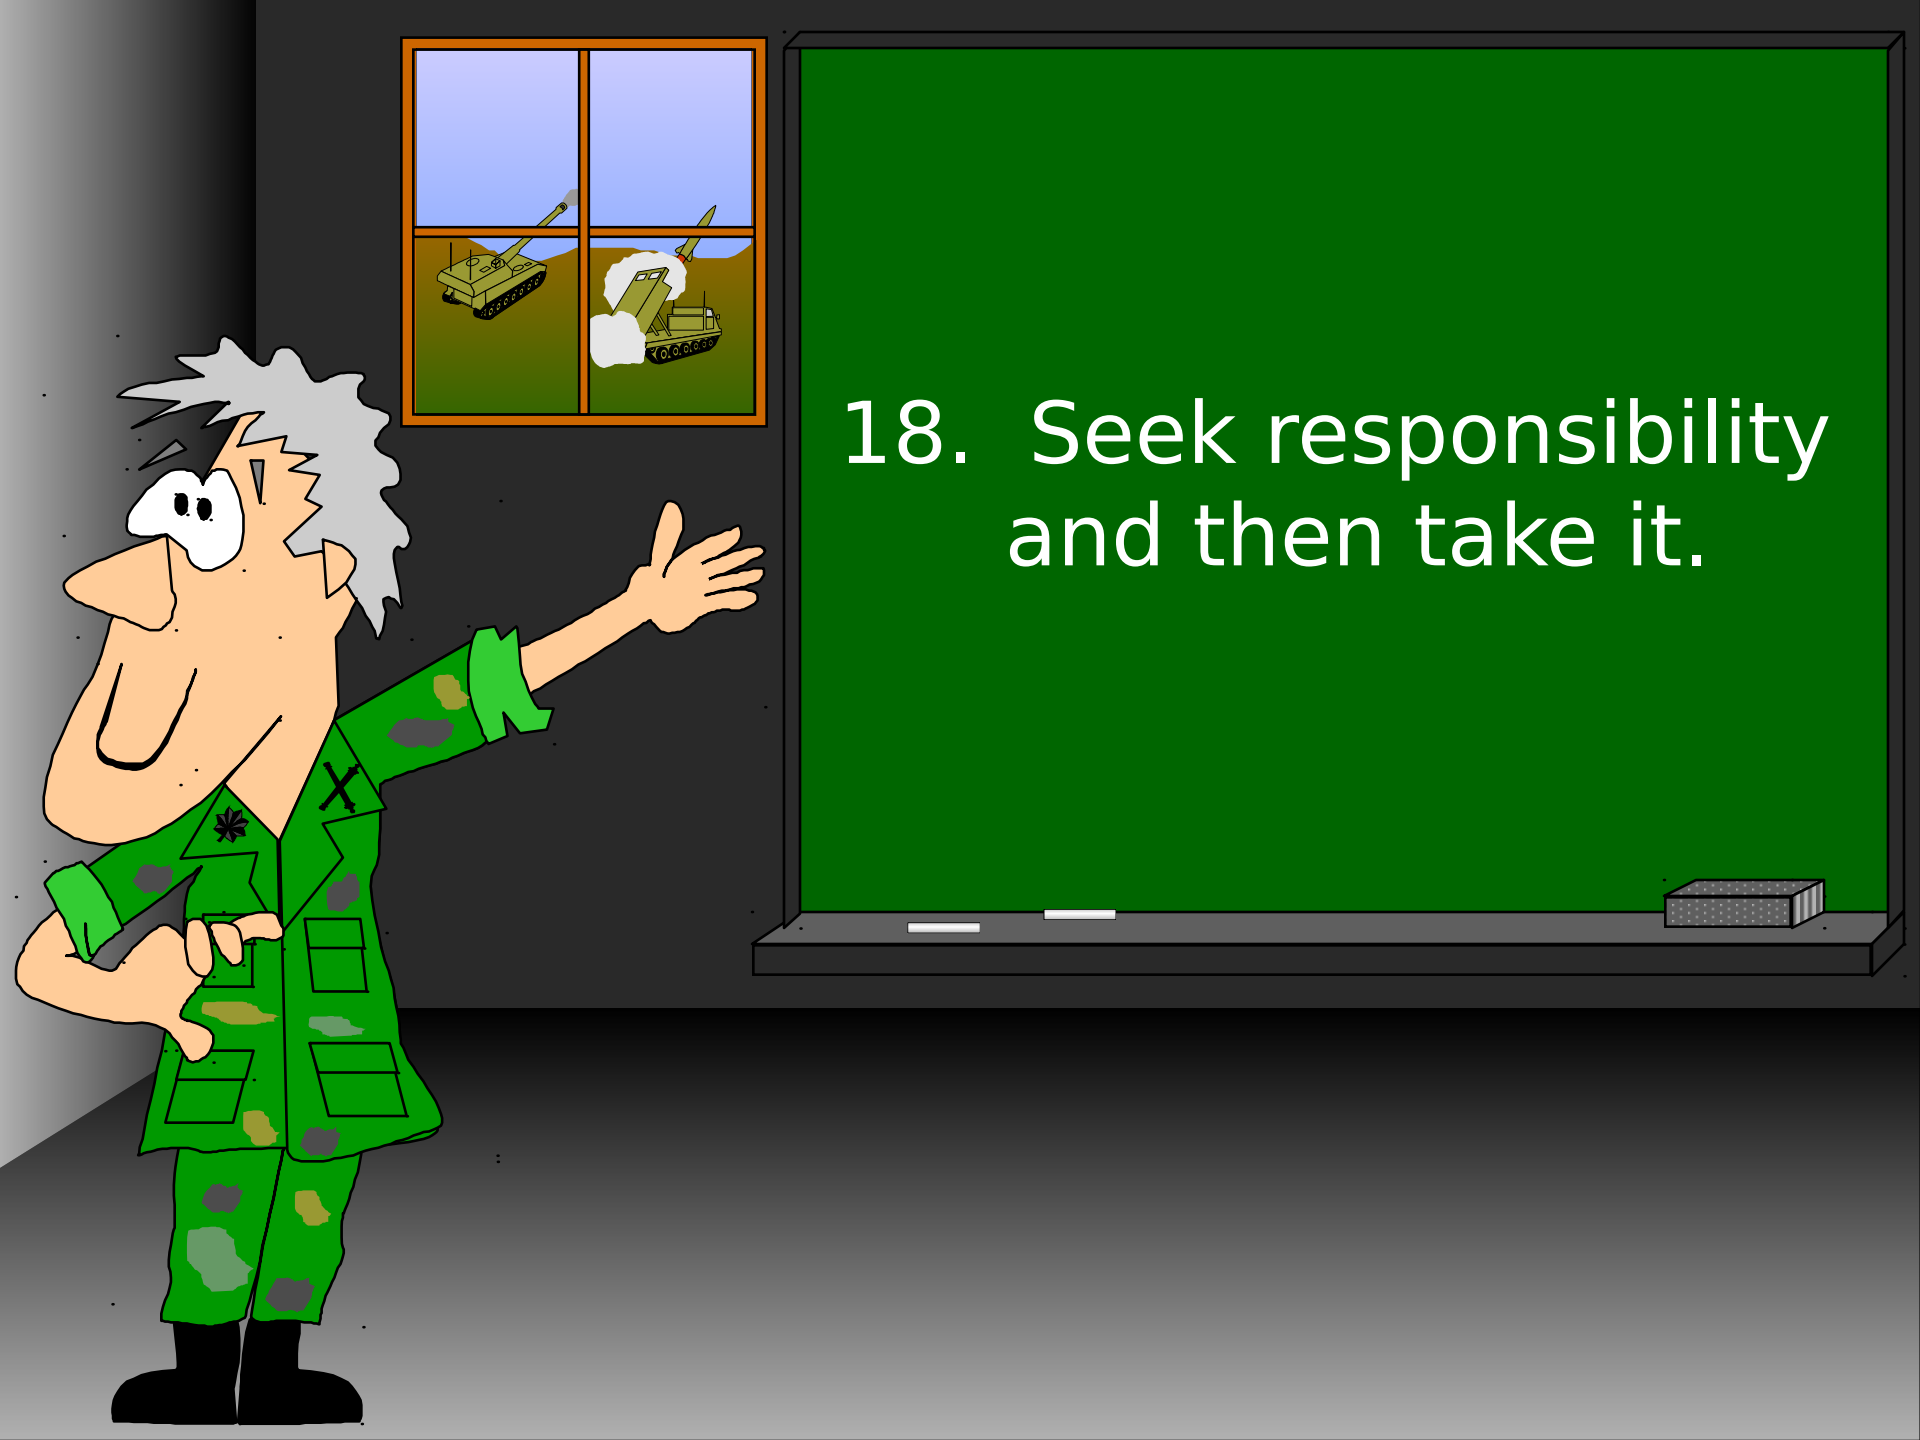
CSM



16. If it ain’t broke,
don’t fix it.

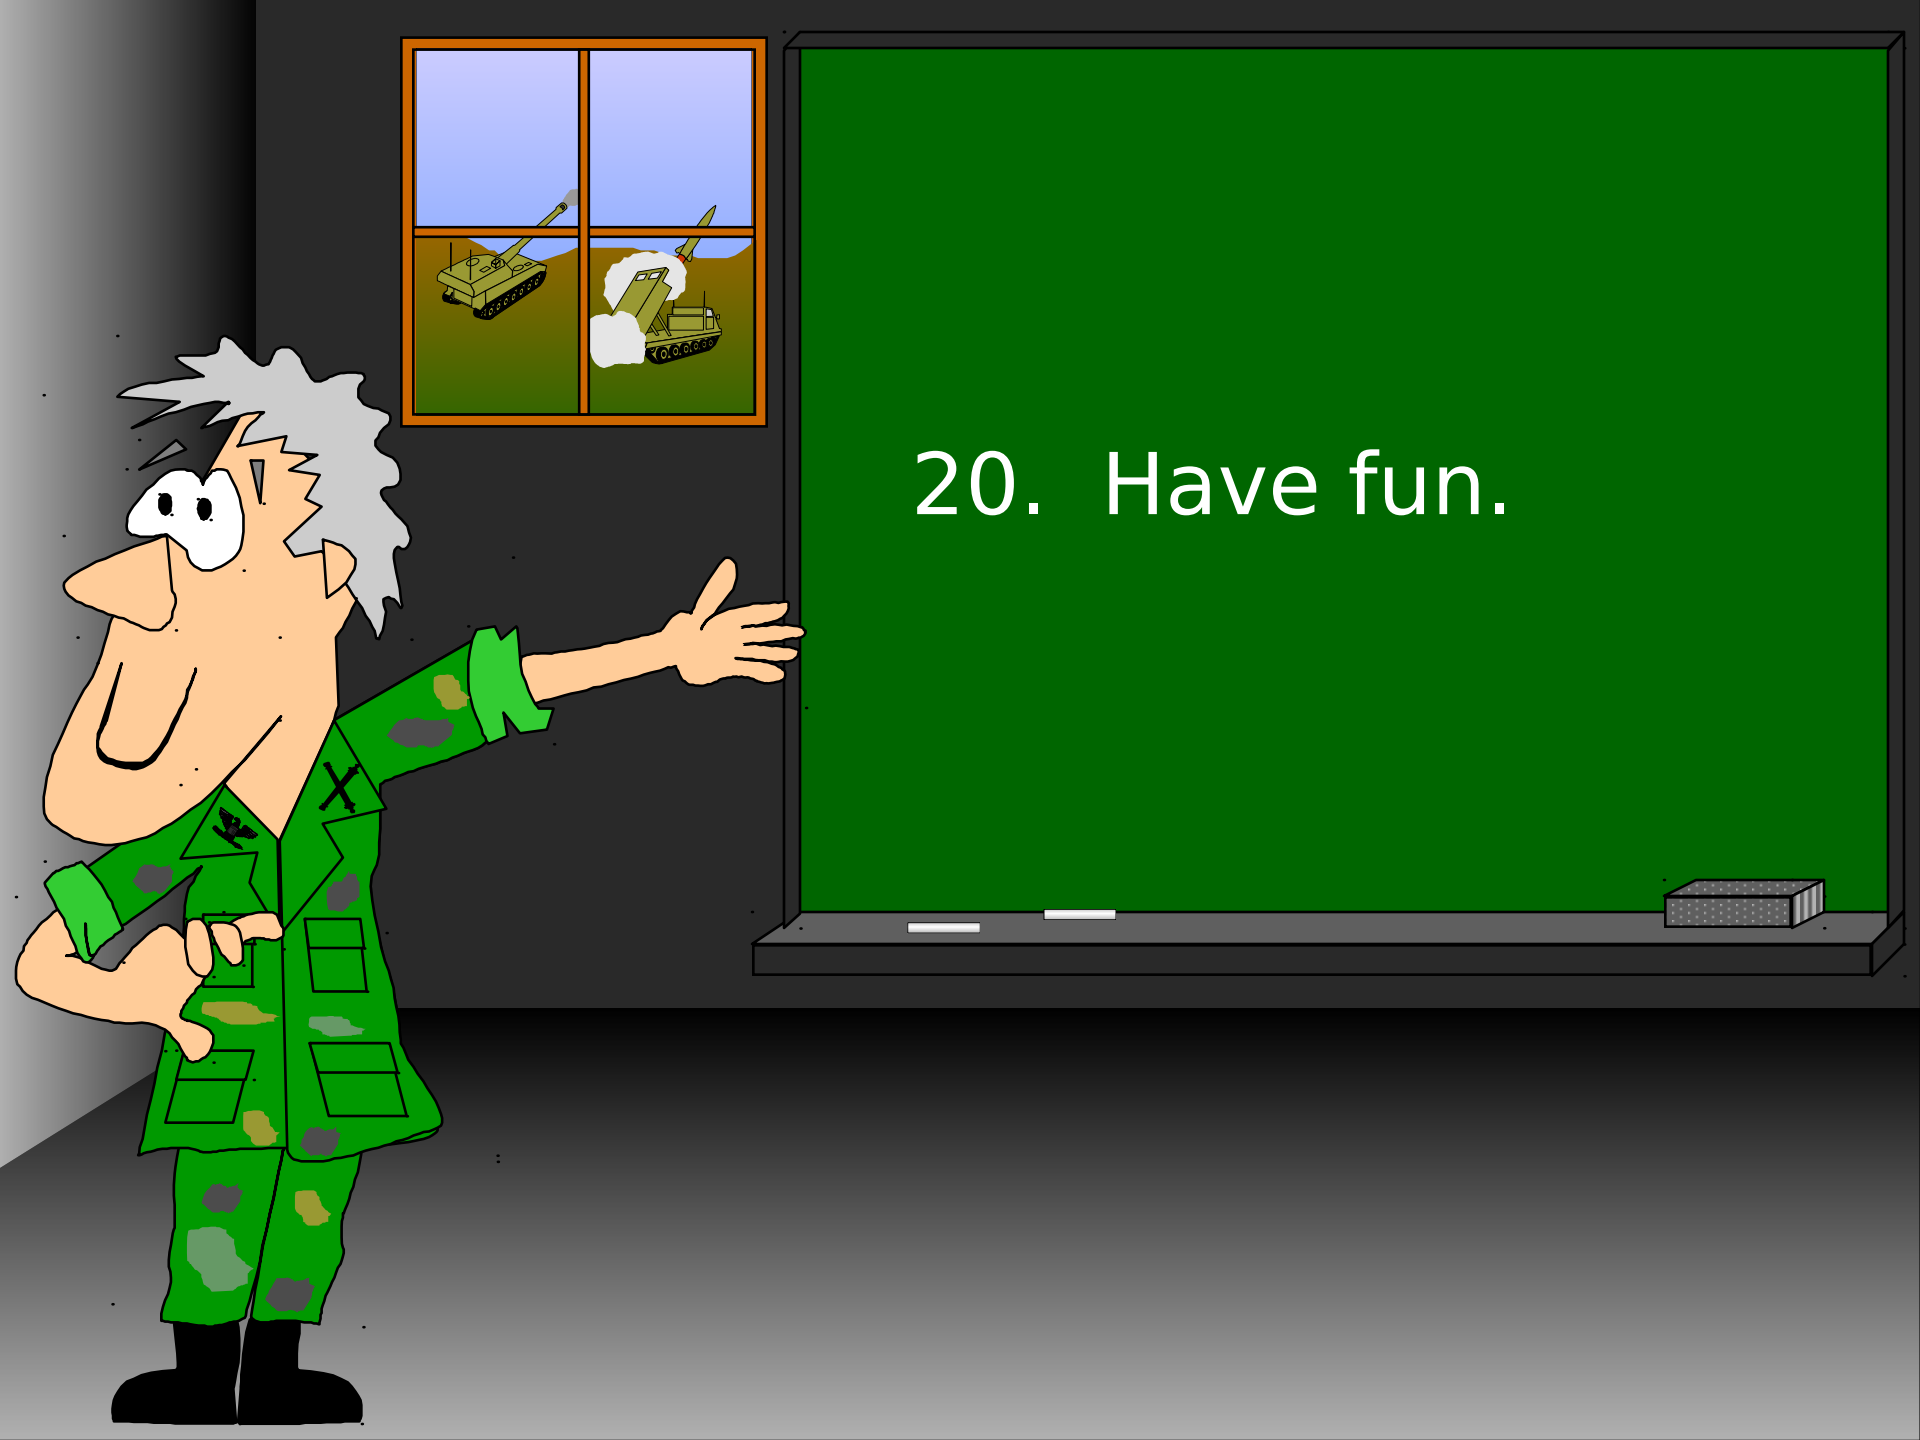


17. Compound interest is a good thing.



18. Seek responsibility and then take it.

19. Murphy lives.



20. Have fun.